Will Rogers Remarks:

DETROIT, May 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Everybody that I hear kicking about the Federal Reserve is some one trying to make money by speculation. So I about come to the conclusion that the Federal Reserve might accidentally be working in the interests of the hundred million who don't know a stock from a stockyard. If 1 per cent rise in rate can upset the whole of Wall Street, then they are working on a mighty slim margin.

Yours,

WILL ROGERS.

La Follette Dares Senate to Expel Him for Telling How He Votes

Wisconsin Man Moves to Restore Floor Privilege to Newspaper Men

WASHINGTON, May 23. (P)—The Senate was challenged today by Senator La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, to employ its rule of expulsion on him if he tells his constituency how he votes on nominations in executive sessions.

DISCUSSION REVIVED
The speech was the signal for another round of discussion of the Senate's indignation over the constant publication of proceedings in its executive sessions.

Earlier in the day, Senator La Follette offered an amendment to the rules to provide that representatives from the press associations be accorded the privilege of the floor. This courtesy was withdrawn from the press associations yesterday on demand of the Wisconsin Senator after the Rules Committee had voted unanimously to deny the privilege of the floor to the United Press Association. No action was taken on the La Follette amendment.

WRITER SUMMONED
The United Press Association was one of the news agencies carrying the purported Lenroot roll call.

The roll call has been described as "inaccurate." Because of the charges of inaccuracy, Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, today asked unanimous consent that the roll call be made public, but Senator Hastings, Republican, Delaware, objected.

After Senator La Follette denounced the Rules Committee today for calling newspaper men for investigation and demanded that the Senate in its inquiry determine what gave information about the Lenroot roll call, Senator Harris, Democrat, Mississippi, a member of the Rules Committee, offered a resolution directing the Rules Committee to call before it each Senator "for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not he divulged any secrets of the Senate in connection with the confirmation of Irvine Lenroot."

Senator Sackett, Republican, Kentucky, objected to immediate consideration of the resolution.

SENATOR BLAMED
Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, joined in the debate. He recalled his statement of the other day in which he referred to the "so-called ethics of the newspaper profession" in speaking of newspaper men.

"I committed some offense, I suppose," he said, "by the statement I made the other day regarding the so-called ethics of the newspaper profession. I do not think that ethically there is anything very admirable in joining with the Senator in violating the rules of the Senate, and flouting them, but ethically the action of the newspaper man is not comparable in its meanness with that of the Senator himself who violates the rules of this body, and then hides behind the newspaper man, and does not dare to disclose his identity. That, in my judgment, represents infinitely greater culpability than that of all members of the Committee on Rules share that opinion, that the real culprit in this matter is not the newspaper man, but is the Senator."

HELEN'S LEGS STIR TALK

Matrons Wonder if Miss Wills Will Dare Play Before Queen Without Stockings

CHICAGO, May 23. (Exclusive)—Two widely known Chicago women tennis players, both young strikers of prominence, today discussed the matter of Helen Wills' playing at Wimbledon without stockings. It has been reported that she has been playing in Paris without them.

Mrs. James Herbert Mitchell, a tennis player of reputation, wears stockings here on the tennis court, but has no animadversion in regard to those who go without them.

"I think it depends entirely on the legs," she said, after a moment's reflection. "A smooth, well-tanned leg looks just as if it were in stockings, anyway. And if Miss Wills has the kind of legs that look as if they were in stockings, I don't see how Queen Mary would know the difference."

Mrs. Hale Holden, Jr., who last year was No. 2 among Chicago women players, also wears stockings. "Some people find it more cool and comfortable to go without them," she said. "I prefer to have a preference as long as the legs in question are attractive and tanned a nice brown."

REVOLT QUIZ

Two High Officials and Professor Dio Quickly Following Red Inquiry

MOSCOW, May 23. (P)—Two high soviet officials and a professor at the Leningrad Mining Institute have been executed by order of the state political administration for counter-revolutionary activity, an official communique announced today.

The three were sentenced to death yesterday, and the communique tersely concluded with the words "the death sentences have been carried out."

The men executed were Von Meck and Velichko, both of whom were recently officials of the commissariat of communications, and Palchinsky, late professor at the Leningrad Mining Institute. Others implicated in the same activity were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment.

The communique stated that "the state political department had discovered counter-revolutionary organizations in the railway, transport and gold and platinum industries, which were seeking to overthrow the soviet power by acts of pernicious sabotage and disorganization with the aid of foreign complicity."

Republicans in Congress Approve Increases on Many Products

Vote on Bill Scheduled to be Taken in House Next Tuesday

WASHINGTON, May 23. (Exclusive)—A number of California agricultural products were slated for increased tariff rates at the day-long Republican conference on the Hawley tariff bill. Figs, canned tomatoes and tomato paste, olive oil in containers, onions, cattle, hides, leather shoes, dried milk and peaches all received increases under committee amendments agreed to by the conference today.

The conference approved, 208 to 24, a rule which will bring the tariff bill to a vote in the House next Tuesday. Under this rule, only committee amendments may be offered from the floor, thus effectually shutting off extended delays in debating the bill. A similar rule was followed in consideration of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill.

The California delegation in the House is solidly behind the tariff bill, with the exception of Representative Swing of El Centro, who voted against the resolution on the bill calling for a vote on the bill next Tuesday.

Representative Evans of Glendale and Craig of Los Angeles stated today that they believe California is very well taken care of by the committee and that it is in a better position on the tariff question than any other State in the Union.

MOHAMMEDANS TO AID NANKING

West China Forces Sought as Ally by Chiang

Nationalist Victory Won Over Kwangsi Army

Foes Plan to Block Retreat of Marshal Feng

SHANGHAI, May 23. (P)—Enlisting of considerable Mohammedan aid appeared today as a major strategic move by Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, so-called President of Nationalist China, to preserve the Nanking regime against the attack of the Central China war lord, Gen.

Western China has a large and powerful Mohammedan population whose armies in the past have inflicted severe defeats on troops of Feng when he has attempted their subjugation. They will prove a most powerful ally to Chiang and might turn the balance of power in his direction.

Hankow dispatches today said two Mohammedan leaders had arrived from Chinese Turkestan by way of Szechwan Province en route to Nanking to confer with Chiang. It is understood the Nationalist government is deferring its campaign against Feng until it has assured itself of Mohammedan support, thus cutting off possible retreat of Feng's troops to the west.

Meanwhile Nationalist forces are taking up their positions along the Peking-Hankow Railway. Both Nanking and Hankow are subjected to the most rigid press censorship and only dispatches containing bare essentials of the situa-

In repulse of Kwangsi armies which are engaged in an offensive against Canton for the control of Kwangtung the government of Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek has won another victory, although the aid from Nanking to Canton hardly materialized in the form expected. The victory should do much to permit Nanking to give its undivided attention to Gen. Feng Yu-Hsiang, whose public statement yesterday said: "The extermination of Chiang Kai-Shek is at hand."

PRESBYTERIANS ELECT M'AFEE

Chicago Professor New Church Moderator

General Assembly Gives Him
Vote Over Dr. Wilson

Victor Hailed as Veteran
Scholar of Creed

ST. PAUL, May 23. (P)—Dr. Cieland B. McAfee of Chicago is the new moderator of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

The one hundred and forty-first general assembly of the church at its opening session here today, elected Dr. McAfee, giving him 572 votes and Dr. Robert Dick Wilson of the faculty of Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J., 322 votes.

McAfee of Chicago
Dr. McAfee, who is a professor of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Chicago, was placed in nomination by Dr. Josiah H. H. Pasadena, and the nomination was seconded by Frank J. Loesch, Chicago attorney and a member of President Hoover's new crime commission.

Dr. Wilson was nominated by Dr. W. E. Biederwolf of Monticello, Ind. Dr. J. C. Hart of New Orleans seconded the nomination. Both men were referred to as veteran scholars of the church to whom the body owes obligations for long and sincere service.

SON OF COLLEGE FOUNDER
Dr. McAfee is the son of Dr. John Armstrong McAfee, a founder of Park College of Parkville, Mo., a Presbyterian institution. He has been pastor of the Forty-first-street Presbyterian Church, Chicago, and the Lafayette-avenue Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, N. Y. During the world war, he was director of the religious work department of the Y.M.C.A. with the American Expeditionary Forces.

In an address this evening by Norman E. Richardson, head of the department of religious education of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Chicago, said to encourage its youth the church should offer it places of honor and responsibility. He frowned upon the inclination of members of older generations in continuing to hold church office for long periods, thus preventing the participation of youth in religious activities.

WILSON FUNDAMENTALIST
Defeat of Dr. Wilson, although to be accounted for in part by other reasons, is regarded by commission-ers to the Assembly as a distinct setback of the ultra-conservative element, generally styled as "fundamentalists."

Supporters of Dr. Wilson, in their addresses urging his election made the point clear that he has "long been a champion of fundamentalist doctrine and an opponent of all efforts to depart from traditional Presbyterian principles."

Dr. McAfee, while not distinctly identified with either the fundamentalist or liberal factions, counted among the "progressives," who refuse to recognize the existence of any controversy.

LIBERALS SEE VICTORY
In a brief address the new moderator made the point that the church should strive to furnish moral support to movements for

MILLION REPAID UNION OIL

Huge Refund on Taxes Allowed in Readjustment
That Follows Revenue Bureau Audit

WASHINGTON, May 23. (Exclusive)—Details of refunds to the Union Oil Company of California on income taxes for 1918 and 1921 resulting in the reduction of assessment for both years for a total of $1,180,613.35 were made public today by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Additional allowances for depletion caused $948,427.27 of the above overassessments. The allowances now made are less than the amounts deducted in the returns but greater than amounts allowed in a preliminary audit as a result of which additional taxes were summarily assessed under the provisions of Section 200 (D) of the Revenue Act of 1918. Deductions for depletion allowed in the present audit were determined after careful investigation of the taxpayer's records and properties involved by business engineers, and conferences held in the bureau.

Of the overassessments $536,577.12 was caused by additional allowances for depletion. The deductions allowed in the present audit are in world peace and law enforcement without electioneering.

His election also is regarded by some commissioners as foreshadowing a victory of "liberals" in the controversy over the management of the Princeton Theological Seminary where a faction of ultra-conservatives of the faculty and alumni are opposing the policies of President J. Ross Stevenson as "too liberal."

Prosecutors Scan Results of New Acquittals in Eller
"Henchmen" Ranks

CHICAGO, May 23. (P)—County prosecutors today were scanning the remnants of their $300,000 investigation into election terrorism in the spring primaries of 1928 and trying to decide whether the acquittal of four Eller "henchmen" by a jury had completely defeated their chances of future convictions.

Those acquitted last night were State Senator Leonard, Sam Kaplan, John Armando and Acoo Fanelli, all political allies of City Collector Morris Eller and his son, Judge Emanuel Eller.

The acquittal was the third victory for the defense in three days. On Monday Morris Eller was discharged on a technicality when he made his fourth plea for immediate trial and the State announced it was unable to proceed. The following day Judge Eller was discharged on the same grounds.

The trial which ended yesterday was the third growing out of the election disorders. Fifteen defendants in the first trial were convicted and fined a total of $8500 for conspiracy to commit crimes ranging from the murder of Octavius C. Granady, a negro Eller opponent, to ballot theft.

Mr. Morrow made the statement that "the wedding will take place while I am on this trip north." With the Ambassador there came to the border a special escort of twenty soldiers from the President's bodyguard. Mr. Morrow explained their presence was matter of courtesy and not connected with threatening letters he is reported to have received.

He declared his trip to be merely a vacation, with no special object in view.

NEW BUDGET FOR FRANCE SHOWS GAIN

Larger Exemptions to Be Allowed in Income Tax for Heads of Families

PARIS, May 23. (P)—The French budget for 1930 will exceed that for 1929 by approximately 2,500,000,000 francs (about $132,000,000) under the terms of a bill introduced today at the reopening of Parliament.

Receipts were placed at 48,722,103,000 francs (about $1,948,600,000) and expenses at 46,222,103,000 francs (about $1,846,600,000), leaving a balance of $6,187,000 francs (about $250,000).

Despite the increase in the total amount of the budget direct taxpayers will profit by a reduction in taxes of approximately 1,500,000,000 francs (about $60,000,000), most of which is in the form of increased income-tax exemptions for heads of families with low and moderate incomes.

The luxury tax in some cases was reduced from 12 to 10 per cent and in a limited number of other cases from 12 to 6 per cent. Succession duties were reduced by one-sixth.

Although direct taxation was thus reduced, it was expected that an increase in payments by taxpayers through a better business turnover and increased incomes will bring the total receipts to a figure above expenses.

Broker's Suit Seeks $500,000 for Alienation

NEW YORK, May 23. (P)—Suit for $500,000 damages charging alienation of affections was filed today by Ray H. Arnold, wealthy Wall street broker, against Charles Mann, Jr., attorney for Mrs. Arnold in a pending divorce action.

The Arnolds are suing each other for divorce and Mrs. Arnold is receiving temporary alimony of $333.33 a month, said to be a record figure for the courts here.

The Arnolds were married in Los Angeles on July 31, 1928, and before their estrangement lived at Greenwich, Ct. It was there, according to Arnold, that Mann alienated Mrs. Arnold's affections.

WASHINGTON, May 23. (P)—The Federal Oil Conservation Board announced today that a "cordial invitation" has been sent to representatives of the independent producers of oil to attend the meeting at Colorado Springs June 10, next, of representatives of Governors of oil-producing States called to discuss an interstate compact to eliminate overproduction.

Secretary Wilbur, chairman of the conservation board, said the independent producers have been asked to attend the meeting and offer any suggestions which they may have concerning the elimination of waste and other conservation measures.

"The plan of the meeting," he added, "is to discuss general principles rather than a specific interstate compact."

The Federal Oil Conservation Board has no specific form of compact in mind, but hopes that out of the conference some satisfactory plan may arise.

TEXAS INVADIED BY FRUIT PEST

Indemnity Bill Not Requested
by Local Chamber

AUSTIN (Tex.) May 23. (AP)—The Mediterranean fruit fly has invaded Texas, George B. Terrell, State Commissioner of Agriculture, announced today.

Worms were found in a shipment of Florida grapefruit received at Dallas ten days ago, Commissioner Terrell said. The fruit was sent to Dr. F. H. Benjamin, government entomologist at Orlando, Fla., who advised today that the worms were Mediterranean fruit-fly larvae.

The infested fruit was ordered destroyed. Commissioner Terrell has posted State inspectors at all fruit centers to watch for the fly. If the fly gets a start in Texas, Commissioner Terrell said, it will destroy not only citrus products, but peaches and other soft fruits.

CHAMBER DID NOT ASK FOR INDEMNITY MEASURE

The pending Congressional bill, proposing an appropriation of $500,000 to indemnify the losses incurred by Florida growers for destruction of crops by the government in groves infested with Mediterranean fruit fly, was not suggested by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce through telegrams sent the Senators and Representatives of this district by President Shannon Crandall, it was revealed yesterday.

A second telegram sent to Representative Crall by President Crandall yesterday stated:

"Governor's committee on Mediterranean fruit fly, headed by State Director of Agriculture George J. J. J. is now in Washington fully conversant with California's attitude in which we concur. We suggest that you be guided entirely by their attitude in the matter of Federal legislation."

The previous telegrams sent Senators Johnson and Shortridge and Representatives Evans and Calkins did not ask the introduction of the present bill appropriating $500,000 to indemnify the Florida growers, Crandall stated.

Michael Strange Becomes
New York Lawyer's Bride
at Ceremony in London

LONDON, May 23. (AP)—Michael Strange, former wife of John Barrymore, was married to Harrison Tweed, New York lawyer, here today.

The former Mrs. Barrymore, who prefers her pen name, Michael Strange, obtained a divorce from the actor last summer in New York State. Several months after the divorce became permanent, Barrymore married Dolores Costello.

Miss Strange had known Mr. Tweed a long time both in New York and London.

The ceremony was performed at the Registrar's office and only a few intimate friends were present. The couple will leave Europe later this summer to make their home in New York.

Health Builder

from among many electric exercisers

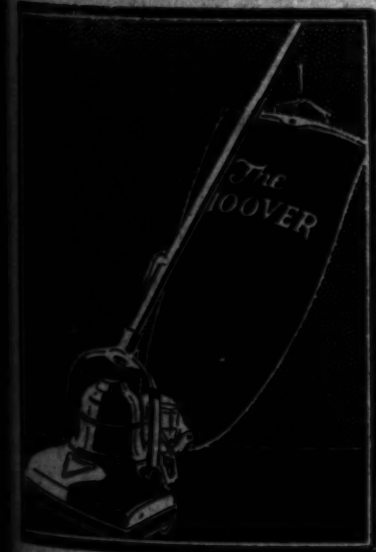

Barker Bros.' decision to feature the Battle Creek Health Builder was made only after months of study and comparison of the many electric exercisers on the market. Though it is perhaps higher in price than some other devices, we believe the better results obtained with the use of the Health Builder more than justify its price. Barker Bros. can highly recommend it for very good reasons:

1. Because it was designed, not by a mechanic, but by a world-famous physician, John Harvey Kellogg, for use in the Battle Creek Sanitarium.
2. Because it has been used in the Battle Creek Sanitarium for over 30 years, with outstandingly successful results.
3. Because it has received the unqualified endorsement of thousands of physicians and physical culturists all over the country.
4. Because the Health Builder's massage is the thorough, deep, slow type that gives best results.
5. Because the Battle Creek Health Builder is substantially built throughout.

P.T.A. CONGRESS PAUSES TO PLAY

Delegates at Sacramento Go on Pleasure Trip

State School Superintendent Gives Talk on Youth

Los Angeles Woman Receives Honors from Leaders

BY MYRA NEE
"Times" Staff Representative
SACRAMENTO, May 23. (Exclusive)—Today an innovation is enjoyed by the State P.T.A. It is a play day midway in the convention instead of at the close as in former years.

This morning delegates numbering well over 100 here took on a tour of the capital city noted for the beauty of its trees now in full deciduous leaf. They visited the Capitol and State buildings, Library and Sutter Fort. At 12:30 o'clock they divided in two sections, one group, including those of the Southland, taking a boat ride on a river steamer while the other in ideal weather enjoyed a picnic in McKinley Park followed by a theater party. Conference and delegates proceeded and followed the outings and addresses were made. "If your heart does not want a world of moral reality, your head will never make you believe in one," said Verling Kersey, State superintendent of instruction, in his address. "Why fuss about silk stockings and lip sticks. If we take steps away from our daughters we wouldn't know where to store them. Let them keep up appearances even if it does cost what our vanities cost in your girlhood, only do not let them try to appear what they are not."

CHOOSING WHAT IS GOOD
"In their studies let them do it an easy way if it is the right way. For the most part we have been teaching hard words to spell and hard problems to do. The doctrine of denial seriously on trial. Let the young live lives of expression rather than restraint. Only teach them to choose for themselves what is good, even what is good taste and they cannot go far astray." He said that the things which challenge the mental and physical skill are far more attractive than are petting parties and booze feasts. The overwhelming percentage of the 25,000 cases of mental breakdown studied by a life insurance company was comprised of those who had no background of joyous youth, he stated.

Health is essential to the best work in school and home and in play times and is a factor of superlative importance, according to P.T.A. leaders. This phase was discussed today. These leading in conferences were: Henry M. Grant, social hygiene; Dr. Lela Beebe, health center demonstration; Miss Winifred Van Hagen, recreation in rural life. Another health-center demonstration was given late in the afternoon. Yesterday technical revisions to govern the State body P.T.A. were made. These include the elimination of the office of auditor but retain that of historian and corresponding secretary, these being proposed for discard by an amendment; change in manner of nominating and electing officers, by providing for twenty-four candidates for president nominated by twenty-four districts, no candidate for any commercial office being endorsed, all books being closed June 1 and consent of all candidates being procured before nomination.

ANGELENO HONORED
Last evening Mrs. C. C. Noble of Los Angeles, for thirty years active in local, State and national P.T.A. work, was honored. Seated upon the platform the twenty-four district presidents, each in evening dress and wearing lilies of the valley, roses and fern, lighted a candle at one held by Mrs. Noble and made a crown of them in a setting of fern and foliage symbolizing their intention to follow in P.T.A. work as she, by her unselfish work, has inspired them to do. Mrs. Hugh Bradford, past president, made the charming and loving dedicatory speech and Mrs. B. C. Cardillo, brilliant in a gown of scarlet chiffon and rhinestone trimmings, ably presided before a large audience. Delightful music was given by the local junior high school girls. Thirty prizes were awarded to associations for excellency in P.T.A. work in its various phases.

Actor Can't Pay Auto Fine After Settling Bills

SAN LUIS OBISPO, May 23. (AP)—Having used his available cash to pay restaurant and garage bills to avoid prosecution on a fraud charge, Harry Sweet, Hollywood film actor, was unable to pay a $250 fine and went to jail at Atascadero today on a reckless-driving charge.

Sweet was arrested here with Miss Mildred Wear and Loren Dolen, Yale (Or.) student on the complaints of a restaurant keeper and a garage man, who charged the trio had failed to pay their bills. When Sweet satisfied their demands and the fraud charges were dropped, Justice of the Peace Cricie sentenced the actor to 120 days in jail or a $250 fine for reckless driving.

Hoover Gives Prize to Girl

WASHINGTON, May 23. (AP)—President Hoover today awarded the Charles R. Walgreen Prize of $500 for the best essay on "The Life and Achievements of William Crawford Gorgas and their Relation to Our Health" to Gertrude Carter Stockard, a student of the Home High School of Mountburg, Ark. The essay contest, conducted under the auspices of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, was nationwide in its scope and was participated in by high school students of thirty-four States. The essays dealt with the career of the late Gen. Gorgas in combating malaria, and relief fever and its contribution toward the betterment of health conditions in the world. State winners announced included, for California, Dorothy Coon of Pomona.

CHURCH FORBIDS TOBACCO USE

United Brethren to Oust Any Minister Who Indulges

LANCASTER (Pa.) May 23. (AP)—Use of tobacco or snuff by clergymen of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ has been prohibited by the general conference of the church. A resolution providing for the revocation of licenses of ministers found guilty of smoking, chewing tobacco or using snuff was adopted at the quadrennial session of the conference by an overwhelming majority.

Patricide May Escape Trial for Murder

SAND POINT (Idaho) May 23. (AP)—James Rau, 22 years of age, who beat his father, Herman Rau, to death with a hammer and then slit his throat "because I had a feeling that I had to kill him," today faces the possibility of escaping trial for murder. Robert E. McFarland, county prosecutor, has ordered a hearing to determine the youth's sanity, and if he is found to be mentally unbalanced, McFarland said, he probably will be sent to an asylum. Rau, who gave himself up to officers yesterday after his 70-year-old father's body had been found near the barn on their ranch, was examined as to his sanity a month ago. In the face of testimony of several physicians that the youth was insane, he was released on the plea of his father, who said he would take James to a private sanatorium. Instead he permitted the youth to work with him on the ranch.

Future Island Governor Now in China Wilds

Another Month of Hunting Will End Expedition

WASHINGTON, May 23. (AP)—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., will be appointed Governor of Porto Rico to succeed Horace M. Towner. He has accepted the appointment, which was tendered some time ago.

Inquiry as to whether the former assistant Secretary of the Navy would take the San Juan post was made of his family some time ago and relatives communicated with him in the wilds of China. He and his brother, Kermit, have been there on a scientific expedition for the Field Museum.

KERMIT ON WAY BACK TO NEW YORK

SHANGHAI (China) May 23. (AP)—Kermit Roosevelt, member of the Roosevelt-Field Museum expedition to the interior of Asia, who arrived here today en route home said his brother, Theodore, Jr., has decided to accept the governorship of Porto Rico. Mr. Roosevelt, who arrived aboard the steamer President McKinley, said his brother and the other members of the expedition were planning another month's hunting at Saigon and then would return to the United States.

BLUES AND REDS PUSH AND PULL

Attacking Army Repulsed
After Earlier Triumph

Largest Move in War Game
Expected Today

Planes Throw Columbus Into
Theoretical Terror

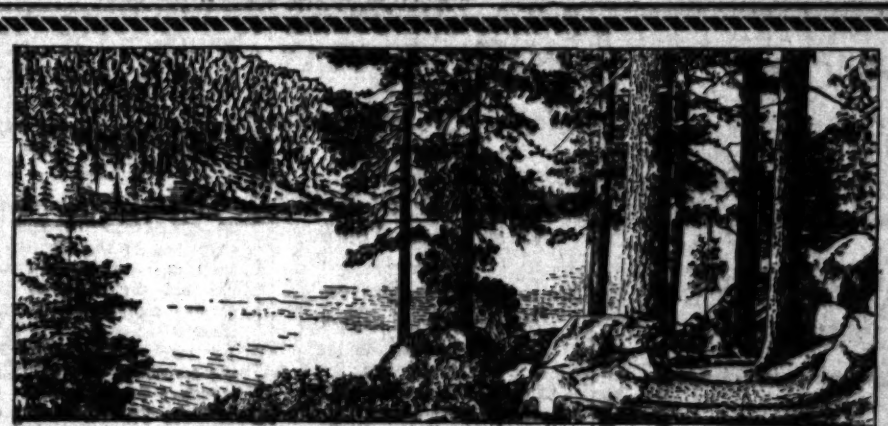

WRIGHT FIELD, DAYTON (C.)
May 23. (AP)—All is quiet along the Ohio front tonight. The Blue army, attacking Columbus, today crossed Darby Creek and beat the Red advance army back for more than a mile and cracked the Red main line of resistance, but it was in turn forced back in a counter-attack shortly before dusk.

Meanwhile planes roared over the war zone as the Red and Blue flyers engaged each other in combat and the city of Columbus, capital of the Red nation, was in a theoretical state of pandemonium after artillery and airplanes piled imaginary havoc during the day.

Tomorrow will see what is believed to be the largest movement so far in the United States Army air-ground maneuvers, which have been going on for more than a week, when the Blues attempt to capture Columbus and end the war at noon Saturday.

When the war game is over, the army aviators will give a display of what they can actually do when bombs are used instead of flares and real machine guns instead of imaginary ones. This display of the air-craft's devastating power will be made at the Fairfield Air Depot, adjoining Wright Field, and forty-five airplanes will be equipped with real death-dealing equipment. It will be used on an imaginary convoy of wagons and 1000 cardboard soldiers.

Columbus went about its business today blissfully unmindful of the state of ruin it was supposed to be in. More than 2,000,000 gallons of water, released when Blue bombers smashed the city's water supply, leaked into the streets. The city, plunged down the streets in imaginary torrents, but no one got wet.

BANKING POLICY CHANGES URGED

National Charters Dropped for State Plan

Maryland Association Hears Comptroller Speak

Financial Conference Asked to Revise Codes

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 23. (P)—Pointing to the loss of seventy-nine banks from the National Banking System in the last six months because the banks found it more advantageous to operate under State charters than under the national bank charter, Comptroller of the Currency Pole today told the Maryland Bankers' Association a new banking policy to meet present-day conditions must be formulated.

Pole said that the old-fashioned unit bank which confined its activities to the community in which it originated is finding it more difficult to operate, with costs increasing and income declining. It is a question, he said, whether it can survive. Group banking, he continued, has shown an amazing growth and branch banking limited by the Federal laws, has expanded under the State laws.

CHARTERS DROPPED
"Within recent months," Pole said, "the trend toward trust company charters by national banks has been accompanied alarmingly. Great bank consolidations of national banks and trust companies are taking place in which the national charters are given up."

CONFERENCE URGED
Pole said, however, that it is within the power of Congress to turn the advantage to the favor of the national banks through legislation and thereby make it to the interest of banks to operate under national charters. To help Congress to prepare such legislation, he proposed to call a conference of outstanding bankers and students of finance. To formulate recommendations to Congress which will offer to State banks and trust companies an opportunity to gain a wider field of banking operations under the national charter.

LEGISLATIVE BILL COSTS ANNOUNCED

Appropriations Will be Less Than $4,000,000, Young Reports

SACRAMENTO, May 23. (Exclusive)—Gov. Young today said that appropriations bills of the recent Legislature slated for executive approval will amount to "less than $4,000,000."

This, Young stated, will be the second smallest total on record for legislative appropriations bills. After the last session, the special appropriations meeting with the Governor's approval amounted to only $2,500,000.

Through legislative disapprovals and the Governor's action, the appropriation total has been boiled down from $26,000,000 represented in the bills as introduced into the session.

PARIS CHAMBER REDS IN UPROAR
Riot of Noise Marks First Day of Parliament

PARIS, May 23. (P)—Parliament reopened today with a riot of noise by Communists, who took the floor to protest against the government's vigorous preventive measures on May Day, by which 3000 suspects were arrested to forestall the predicted riots.

It was a short-lived vocal storm for Minister of the Interior Tardieu promptly made it a matter of a question of confidence and the government won its first test of the session by a vote of 326 against 251. Interpellation of the arrests were postponed.

There are, however, many serious problems before them, such as a budget totaling nearly $2,000,000, rent laws, city planning, social laws and other subjects ranging from the high cost of living to the best methods for exploiting colonies.

The Chamber of Deputies gave the Poincaré government a vote of confidence, 326 to 251, postponing interpellations on the arrests made on May 1.

FOREST LAWN HAS BEEN CALLED
America's most famous memorial park. Certainly its fame has travelled to all parts of the world and famous people from many lands who have visited Forest Lawn have paid glowing tribute to its beauty and its spirit.

It has been described by public men as one of the community's most precious civic possessions; it has been endorsed by holy men of many creeds as a source of spiritual inspiration pointing to the perfection of the life beyond; educators look upon its art and its architecture as cultural assets wherein the scholar may study and benefit. Forest Lawn Memorial Park is more than a cemetery—it is the highest expression of the beauty of memory, a shrine where identity is preserved through the ages, where fame, character and kindness are given man's high tribute through the generations to come.

CANDIDATES FOR MAYOR TELL VIEWS

Porter and Bonelli Speak Before Banquet Given by Developers' Association

John C. Porter and William O. Bonelli, opposing candidates in the forthcoming mayoralty election, last night spoke upon the platforms they expect to put in force in event of election at an enthusiastic meeting of the Developers' Association in the Elite Cafe banquet rooms. Nearly 1600 members were present.

Porter, who was one of the members of last year's grand jury, which indicted Asa Keyes, former District Attorney, and Albert Marco, vice mayor, said that his work on that body indicates the policy he will follow if elected. He denied that he is a "blue law" advocate.

Bonelli said he has made no impossible promises, and as for assessments, or of political positions to individuals. He declared he will "clean up" the police department, and that he is an avowed opponent of the present city administration. More than a dozen speakers addressed the meeting on behalf of Porter, whom the audience was supporting. Among them were Rev. Gustav Briggleb and Charles Crockett, the actor, Ervin P. Werner and Peterson Hall, opposing candidate for City Attorney, also spoke. Nick Harris, one of the defeated mayoralty candidates, acted as toastmaster of the gathering.

A musical program preceded the speaking.

POWER BOND ISSUE WILL FACE FIGHT

Women's Political League Goes on Record Opposing Further City Debts

A resolution opposing the $17,500,000 bond issue for the Bureau of Power and Light at the June 4 election was adopted yesterday by the Women's Political League. In addition to going on record against the issue the league pledged its active support to the work of defeating the bonds.

The resolution recites that on five occasions the people have voted power bonds, which now total a sum of more than $50,000,000, and that the bonded indebtedness of the city, exclusive of school bonds, is more than $140,000,000. It further states that the city is faced with providing its share of the cost of the Colorado River project, as well as the $23,000,000 loss resulting from the breaking of the St. Francis Dam, within the next few years. For these reasons, the resolution is inclined to oppose the further issuance of power bonds.

Miss Ruth Steery is president of the league, the other officers and directors being Mrs. P. E. Keeler, Mrs. Emma Thompson, Mrs. A. Vandegrift, Mrs. Marvin Arnold, Mrs. Alma Nordstrom, Mrs. Caryl M. Sheldon, Mrs. Lydia Croesley, Mrs. Douglas L. Edmonds and Mrs. Dora A. Stearns.

Welsh Resigns as Manager of Universal Films

Robert Welsh yesterday resigned as general manager of Universal Film Corporation, a statement issued late in the day by the corporation's publicity department announced. Mr. Welsh had been general manager for two years. He had no definite plans for the immediate future, but expects to go to Honolulu on a vacation.

In the same bulletin Carl Laemmle, president, announced that assistant to the president, in complete charge of the studio and production at Universal City, taking over the duties of the former general manager.

No explanation of the sudden resignation was given.

DESCENDANT OF GOLD RUSH PIONEER BURIED

Funeral services were conducted at the Little Church of the Flowers yesterday for Mrs. Margaret Heister Rolfe, grand-daughter of Capt. Bebe, who brought the first gold-rush emigrant train to California in 1848. Burial was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Mrs. Rolfe died Tuesday at her home, 867 West Fifty-ninth street. She was born in Merced seventy-one years ago. Besides her husband, William Rolfe, she leaves four sons and seven daughters. Alvares & Moore were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mother Dies as Rosenwald Rushes East

Efforts of Lessing J. Rosenwald, vice-president of Sears Roebuck & Co., here on an inspection tour, to reach the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Augusta Nussbaum Rosenwald, in Chicago, before her death proved futile yesterday.

A few hours after the son had canceled his plans to visit the company's new chain of twenty stores on the Pacific Coast and caught a fast train for the metropolis, a message telling of the mother's death at 3 p.m. was received here.

Mr. Rosenwald, whose home is in Philadelphia, had just arrived here from San Francisco, when news of the serious condition of his mother reached him.

Mrs. Rosenwald, wife of Julius Rosenwald, Chicago capitalist, died after an illness of more than a week. She was 80 years of age, and had not enjoyed good health since she underwent an operation in 1927 for the removal of a cancer. She was vice-president of the Girl Scouts of America, and leaves her husband, two sons and three daughters. All were at her bedside during her illness, and her last wish was that Lessing and his wife, Edna, should be in Chicago, both racing home when death came.

McGregor of the General Fireproofing Company yesterday were tendered a vote of thanks by members of the Office Furniture Dealer's Association for the success that marked the fifth annual outing, Wednesday afternoon and evening, at the Fox Hills Country Club.

The reason for the golf tournament was won by Monte Rucker of the Angell Furniture Company, the second by Ray Curtis of Yawman & Erbe Manufacturing Company, and the third by Kenneth Sprague of Remington-Rand Company. Other firms represented in the tournament were Gunn Furniture Company, Pacific Desk Company, Los Angeles Desk Company, Barker Brothers, Southern California Safe Company, Grimes-Blaissford Stationery Company, General Fireproofing Company, Hanson Desk Company, Office Service Company, Carl G. Firman, Halstead Furniture Company, Stationers' Corporation, Robert L. Ware Company and California Desk Company. After the tournament dinner was served in the clubrooms.

Horse Show to Open Tonight at Flintridge Club

Arrangements have been completed for the Horse Show, which is being sponsored by the Los Angeles Junior League this evening and all day tomorrow at the Flintridge Riding Club.

Miss Mabel Seeley, president of the league, is general chairman of the affair, which is an annual event and the proceeds will be devoted to the building fund for the new Home for Convalescent Children, which the league soon is to start building on its site in Silver Lake district.

The dinner this evening will be an attractive affair and the entries for tomorrow's horse show promise a most interesting exhibition at 8 o'clock.

Following the dinner this evening at the riding club there will be dancing and other entertainment.

Funeral Takes Place of Child's Birthday Party

VENTURA, May 23.—A funeral replaced a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Walker yesterday when they laid their son Billie in the Ivy Lawn Cemetery. Friends of the youngster, who was killed Monday when he ran in front of a truck, had been held yesterday on the occasion of Billie's sixth birthday.

At an inquest conducted by Coroner Reardon last night, A. B. Calvert, driver of the truck, was exonerated. Witnesses told of seeing the little boy start across the Ventura-Ojai highway in the path of the truck, stop in the middle of the road then turn back. Calvert fully attempted to swerve to the right to miss the child, but the front fender of the delivery truck struck the youngster, it was said.

Calvert, witnesses declared, ran his truck off the road and jumped out, hurrying back to the huddled figure in the road. He told the jury that he was going slowly and that his machine was in second gear at the time of the accident. Witnesses bore out his testimony.

CASTLE FIGHTS RADIO COMBINE

Assistant State Secretary Testifies in Inquiry

Continued Competition With Cable Service Favored

Pre-empting of Transoceanic Channels Brought Up

WASHINGTON, May 23. (Exclusive)—Continued competition between radio and the cables in international communications is favored by William R. Castle, the assistant secretary of state. Although co-ordination between American radio-cable services may be desirable for economic reasons and to meet foreign competition, the American theory of competitive services ought to prevail in the international as well as the domestic field, according to Mr. Castle.

He expressed his opinions while testifying before the Senate committee conducting hearings on the Cossens bill to establish a Federal communications commission. His testimony to this effect followed close upon that of Capt. S. C. Hooper, who expressed doubt of the necessity of combining the American radio system with this country's cables in order to meet the "cartelization" of communications that has already been accomplished in the major countries of the world having extensive radio and cable operations.

TENDENCY TO MERGE
Inauguration of American services was advocated by Gen. George O. Gibbs, chief of the Army Signal Corps, in an earlier stage of the broad inquiry the Senate committee is conducting into America's national and international wire and wireless systems.

His remarks on the radio-cable situation were chiefly to the effect that he regarded competition by types, or between one form of communication, as against the other, more desirable than competition by groups, or between rival companies utilizing both radio and cables.

Whether Mr. Castle's views represent those of the Department of State as an American policy remains to be seen.

The tendency of American radio and cable companies is toward a merger to meet foreign competition, particularly from the recently unified British system of cables and radio.

FOREIGN SITUATION UP
While the Senate committee was pursuing its own inquiry, the international situation was forcibly brought to the attention of the Federal Radio Commission in the course of its hearings on applications for short waves for domestic radio-telegraph projects proposed to compete with the land line telegraph systems. Efforts to secure the international situation, in which this country's radio communications are represented by the Radio Corporation of America's present monopoly of American transoceanic radio were dispelled by the commission.

The effort was directed by counsel for the Radio Protective Association, a group of American equipment manufacturers, none of whom is engaged in communications. An attempt was made to show that Radio Corporation of America has exclusive arrangements for the dispatch and receipt of radio traffic in foreign countries with which it contracts. While this is true with respect to actual operating circuits, the commission took cognizance of the fact that an attack upon this radio system was actually an attack upon America's position in international radio.

Thus far, the Cossens committee and the Radio Commission alike have succeeded in keeping the international radio problem free from the seething maelstrom of prejudice that prevails in the domestic radio trade and patent fields. Senator Cossens is steering an astute course in this respect, while the Federal Radio Commission now has an authority to guide it on international short-wave problems in the person of Gen. Charles McK. Saltzman, the former chief of the Army Signal Corps, now a radio commissioner.

CHANNELS GRABBED
The gravity of the international problem is accentuated by the fact that transoceanic channels are being pre-empted as fast as possible by foreign countries in order to gain a staunch foothold in the radio spectrum through priority.

The commission hearings on Thursday were largely concerned with the applications of the Radio Corporation of America for more radio channels with which to feed traffic into its transoceanic system from more points within the United States. Its proposed domestic radio-telegraph service would do this and also handle messages between foreign cities and New York, Chicago, San Francisco, New Orleans, Seattle, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Denver, Miami, Cincinnati, Savannah, Detroit, Dallas, Kansas City, Cleveland, Minneapolis, Memphis, Pittsburgh, Houston, Norfolk, Buffalo, Portland, Me.; St. Louis, Rochester, Washington, Boston, Schenectady, Portland, Or., and Milwaukee.

The hearings wound up with consideration of a similar application by the National Radio and Telegraph Company, which proposes to link sixteen cities by radio in addition to those it already serves on the Pacific Coast. Following are the cities: New York, Chicago, Kansas City, Denver, San Francisco, Seattle, St. Louis, Birmingham, Memphis, New Orleans, Dallas, Galveston, Jacksonville, Savannah, Norfolk and Miami. Both companies selected these cities as the proposed sites of their radio stations because of the large amount of foreign and domestic telegraph business they originate.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23. (Exclusive)—Nathaniel Hawthorne Vincent, who wrote "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," can try blowing $50,000 worth, in the opinion of Germaine Waterman.

In a breach of promise suit for that amount filed here today Miss Waterman averred Vincent stepped out of his field a bit when he sang, "On, Promise Me," and then forgot the significance of it. His actions indicated to Miss Waterman he meant it, she said, but all she got out of it was a broken heart, and a wedding ring which never has been used.

Twins Sail to Swim Channel
NEW YORK, May 23. (P)—Bernice and Phyllis Zittenfeld, 15-year-old twins, who weigh 165 pounds apiece, sailed on the Rochambeau today to swim the English Channel.

They won't come back until they have accomplished it, said their mother, Mrs. Teddy Zittenfeld, who accompanied them.

His remarks on the radio-cable situation were chiefly to the effect that he regarded competition by types, or between one form of communication, as against the other, more desirable than competition by groups, or between rival companies utilizing both radio and cables.

Whether Mr. Castle's views represent those of the Department of State as an American policy remains to be seen.

Governor Fears Repetition of 1927 Disaster

Engineers, However, Express No Apprehension

MEMPHIS (Tenn.), May 23. (P)—Fear of a break in the main Mississippi River levee at Mounds Landing, Miss., tonight marred an otherwise encouraging picture of the high-water situation in the lower valley. At other points along the 600-mile stretch of embankment, workers are engaged in what they believe their last fight against spring rises.

Gov. Bilbo of Mississippi declared there is "imminent danger" of a break at the scene of the disastrous crevasse two years ago that resulted in inundation of Greenville, Miss. He appealed for immediate shipment of 600 tents and 3200 blankets. Should the break occur, Bilbo's telegram said, "there will be a repetition of the 1927 overflow."

United States engineers, however, express no apprehension for the safety of the Mounds Landing levee. They are working hundreds of men day and night on the dyke and believe it will be in shape to hold.

Mississippi National Guardsmen are prepared to move into the delta immediately in event of a break. The St. Francis River from St. Francis, Ark., to its upper reaches is falling fast.

While the Arkansas River continues to rise at some points, it is falling at others and government observers do not believe it will reach further serious stages.

BANK RATE HOLDS

NEW YORK, May 23. (P).—The New York Federal Reserve Bank today made no change in its rediscount rate of 8 per cent.

SPECULATORS STILL ALOOF

Large Traders Waiting for Rises in Rediscount Rate; Billion for Rights Required

Well-informed speculators in the stock market are still standing aside waiting for the muddy waters to clear. Brief rallies and declines in the last two days probably represented activities of the professional traders darting to pick up bargains and tossing them back for quick profits. But there is no evidence that the main body of speculators and investors is back in the market.

Not until the Federal Reserve discount rates are raised is it likely that the stock market will return to a normal condition. The recommendation of the Federal Reserve Board allowing increases in the rates was generally welcomed by speculators, investors and business interests alike as a harbinger of the money conditions. Powerful figures in the financial world have consistently urged higher rates and an end of the indirect policy of stiffening the money market; but the New York Federal Reserve governors adjourned yesterday without changing the 8 per cent rate.

SHOULD HELP BUSINESS? Once the news is out of the way the chances are in favor of a general relaxation all around. Business plans, corporate financing and public sentiment should be benefited by the knowledge that the Federal Reserve banks have taken an open stand on the cost of rediscounting, which should immediately eliminate much of the fear now prevalent about the money market.

Whether the reserve banks will take advantage of the stand adopted by the Federal Reserve advisory council is a question that apparently is unanswered by the people usually close to the banking authorities. It is pointed out, however, that even if the uncertainty over the rediscount rate is removed at this time, there is still the likelihood of another period of 20 per cent, or higher charges for call money before now and the middle of July.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE
Rallying Movement Checks Downward Trend of Prices; Transamerica Features

Transamerica Corporation, leading the market activity, headed a rallying movement on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday that partially corrected the depression manifested during the past few sessions. This issue, recovered 1 1/2 points to close at 136 1/2. Oil issues played a prominent part and advanced fractionally with one or two industrials and utilities. Other sections of the market held a firm level.

Richfield Oil staged a rally of 3-4 to 40 3-8. Douglas Aircraft, another market leader, continued its advance with a rise of 3-4 to 40 3-4. Other industrials were steady.

Southern California Edison advanced 7-8 to 86 recovering in a large measure from the recent slump. The issue was one of the active traders of the session. Security-First National also played a prominent part in the day's activity and at the close of the session was unchanged at 132. No other changes were noted.

Byron Jackson Company, which has been an active feature of the market in the recent past, continued to be transferred rapidly and on the demand advanced 1 3-4 points to 136 1/2.

Chicago wheat traders, on wheat were firmer at the last dealing, equal advances. Corn finished 1/4 to 1/2 up, oats showing 1/4 to 1/2 gain and provisions unchanged to a rise of 7/8.

At first the trend of wheat values here was downward today, influenced largely by comparative weakness of the Liverpool market and by reports of export demand for wheat from North America. Moreover information furnished by Canadian railroad sources indicated that, contrary to trade advice current, the Canadian maritime situation gave no reason for alarm at this time. Accordingly, numbers of yesterday's buyers turned to the selling side, especially as Liverpool futures deliveries of wheat closed today unchanged to only 1/4 higher, notwithstanding that, based on yesterday's action of the Chicago and Winnipeg markets, Liverpool wheat should have responded with 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 points.

Later, however, trade messages from Winnipeg reiterated that a continuance of dry weather would be serious for wheat and that rain would be more than well come, owing to meagerness of recent supplies of moisture. Under such circumstances, buying here was renewed, and at times the upward swing of the market went well above yesterday's closing level.

As nearly as could be judged by a majority of Chicago wheat traders, no great deterioration of the crop in Canada has occurred so far, but the spring is late, and although wheat has somewhat accumulated in good shape, a big test of the Canadian crop will be likely to come during late June and July. In the meantime, general rains are essential.

Corn-planning reports today from the big corn-producing States were rather pessimistic, and the corn market inclined upward, especially in the late dealings. Showery weather was predicted for Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois and Iowa. Cuts followed corn, and were sensitive to indications that stocks of oats here are unduly light.

Provisions edged slightly firmer, helped by upturns in the value of hogs.

STOCK SELLING RUSH EASES UP

Inclined to the belief that a higher rate had again been held up there.

WAIT FOR BOOST

Wall street now believes that a 5

was met, now believes that a 5 per cent discount rate within the near future is a certainty, and is only waiting to have it done and over with. It is pointed out, however, that the recent violent liquidation has probably released a store of funds large enough to satisfy the reserve officials, temporarily, particularly in view of the fact that Bank of England announced no change in its discount rate this morning, and a higher rate here would undoubtedly threaten its solid reas-

The weekly Federal reserve broker's loan compilation showed a reduction of $45,000,000, but as yesterday's transactions were not completed until today, the additional reduction resulting from the severe break will not appear until next week's figures are published. The total of brokers' loans as of last night was $5,520,000,000, which is $273,000,000 less than the record total of March 20, and about $1,000,000,000 more than the total a year ago, when action to reduce the volume was first being considered by banking authorities.

NEWS FAVORS

The day's business news continued generally favorable, including a 50 per cent stock dividend by Borg Warner and a five-for-one split-up by Packard. Reports from the reparations conference, however, were less cheerful, and it was feared in automobile circles that stock-market prices may have an adverse effect upon sales.

Much of the day's rally was attributed to shorts who covered on the theory that a higher bank rate had already been largely discounted marketwise, and that in any case the increased rate probably would be deferred, in view of the fact that the London rate was unchanged. There also was a feeling that the market was oversold, and investment trust and bargain-hunting buying was in evidence.

The utilities were prominent in the turn, making up most of the gains. Columbia Gas rose more than 4 points to 10 1/2, and American and Foreign Power and American Power and Light rose 4 1/2 points and Commonwealth Edison 4 points. The mounted gains topped 10 points. Allied Chemical and Packard about 8. National Cash Register 6 and such shares as New York American Can, Radio City, United States Steel, General and Ohio, 4 points and more. Motor Motors rallied about 3 points. There were a few soft spots, such as the 10-point drop in the space for the first time, but, climbing 86 points, and Case machinery dropping 16. Detroit Edison, the St. Industrial Realty and Phillips 11, and the 10 points in small turnarounds. Sixteen other touched a new low at 74, but retained the loss.

Federal Reserve Bank of New York moved down an exceptionally strong level, with a higher rate just as the market was about to rise. The bank's move was difficult to justify. The bank's policy of raising rates to deposit and Federal reserve liabilities combined with a 64.4 per cent increase in the per cent a year saw a minimum of only 40 per cent. New York City banks during the week saw a low for the reserve institutions by $2.5 billion to $111,000,000, less than half of the $230,000,000 of a year ago.

Commodities moved in comparatively narrow ranges. Wheat advanced a bushel, but made up its loss on lower prices available in Canada. Corn advanced higher on reports of a surplus in the United States. Cotton futures were steady.

Foreign exchanges were inclined to reflect the high level for time, but the dollar touched a new low for the month at 64.95-7.5.

GAINS FORECAST IN SUGAR BEETS

The fact that notwithstanding a slump in the sugar market, the company's profits were in excess of the previous year is shown in the report as the result of the improved financial condition of the company and the sale for cash of 100,000 shares of common stock, as authorized by the stockholders in 1924. In 1923, the acquisition of the sugar factory at Belmond, Iowa, without increasing the company's cash, and the continuation of consolidation of operations, including consolidation of offices.

The company's income from sources other than sugar was also increased by improved net profits from the concern's farms, the report stated.

Woman's Confession Clears Mystery of Agua Caliente Money Car Murders and Robbery

WOUNDED MAN CALLED KILLER

Story of Machine-Gun Raid Implicates Colson

Four Others Named in Story Gained by Police

Search Instituted for Those Connected With Crime

A confession naming M. B. Colson, in custody at San Diego suffering from a gunshot wound, and Lee Cochran, Los Angeles Harbor water-front character, as the machine-gun killers of the money guards in the $85,000 Agua Caliente robbery Monday, was made last night by Mrs. Agnes Grace Kearney, who was arrested with Colson Wednesday, according to San Diego police.

Shortly before Mrs. Kearney confessed Capt. Frank Dewar, chief of the local sheriff's robbery squad, announced the arrest of Mrs. Marian Cochran, the sister of Lee Cochran, who was arrested with Colson Wednesday, and the identity of two men and two women sought in the investigation.

Those figuring in Mrs. Kearney's confession who are sought are: Jerry Kearney, her husband; Lee Cochran, 24 years of age, former water-taxi operator at the harbor; Marcel Delian, 40, also a water-taxi operator and owner of the schooner Juan B.

Jean Lee, alias Jeanne Kistich, 24, Italian-born companion of Cochran, Colson and Delian; Helen Maddux, 17-year-old sister-in-law of Kearney, who is believed by police to have aided him in his crime.

Cochran, Colson and Delian, according to Mrs. Kearney's statement, were in a house on Third street, San Diego, and late Monday afternoon, following the robbery, Jean Lee brought the wounded Colson to the Kearney home at 3850 Villa Terrace.

DOCTOR NAMED Colson was badly wounded, she said, and Dr. R. O. Taylor was called to extract the lead slug. She said the physician desired to take Colson to a hospital, but the wounded man objected, whereupon he was taken to Dr. Taylor's office, the police removed, for which the physician was paid $500 by Jerry Kearney, her husband.

Mrs. Kearney said Cochran came to her home Tuesday and in her presence returned the $200 to her husband, then telephoned his wife in Long Beach to come for him, which she did, driving him to Long Beach Wednesday.

DEFENDS HUSBAND The woman's statement declared her husband had nothing to do with the robbery and killing of the guards. She asserted that the "others always came to Jerry when they got into trouble." Kearney left San Diego Wednesday, she said. When Mrs. Cochran was taken in custody yesterday by Dewar's men

DR. SHORES PASSES AWAY

Dr. O. W. Shores, 69 years of age, a resident of Los Angeles and Salt Lake City during the past twenty-five years, died at the Sylvan Lodge Hospital yesterday. For the past five years he maintained offices in this city jointly with his brother, Dr. A. J. Shores. The brothers entered the medical profession together nearly forty years ago. Dr. Shores was prominently identified at 537 Redondo avenue, Long Beach, he admitted going to San Diego after her husband, but she said she was taken down in a car by Jean Lee. On return, she said, her husband left, saying he was going to San Francisco.

With the confession of Mrs. Kearney, the arrest of Mrs. Cochran and the identities of the other asserted gangsters known, Dewar says he believes that the Agua Caliente robbery was planned on the San Pedro waterfront, since all those sought for are known as taxi "captains" operating there.

As the search for Cochran, Delian and Kearney assumed coast-wide proportions, the Long Beach police about midnight last night were notified by an oil station operator that three men in a dust-covered sedan, bearing a machine gun in the tonneau, appeared in the beach city. While stopping for gas and oil the station attendant said the trio inquired the road to Pasadena. The sheriff's office was notified and deputies assigned to the report.

CLEWS FROM BEACH Throughout forty-eight hours of investigation, Dewar says his deputies constantly worked on clues at Long Beach, Wilmington and San Pedro, which resulted in the following salient points:

(1) That in front of 678 West Third street, San Pedro, the deputies last night found an abandoned car registered jointly to the mysterious Jean Lee and Colson.

Dewar says that Cochran and his wife were taken to the Kearney home at 3850 Villa Terrace Wednesday night.

(2) That Mrs. Cochran says Jean Lee came to Long Beach from San Diego Tuesday night and drove her to San Diego Beach in the asserted Colson car. She was said to have been followed by Kearney and Miss Maddux in a Nash coupe of license No. 72-8688.

(3) That Kearney visited a Mr. and Mrs. Evers in the harbor district and told them he knew of the Agua Caliente robbery, but did not believe he would be implicated for shielding the asserted gangsters, Capt. Dewar says, telephoned a relative in San Diego Wednesday night, and when informed that his wife was in jail, told her he would return and surrender.

WIFE WAS MOVING (4) That during the search yesterday for Cochran the deputies found the wife engaged in hurried removal of the family effects from 837 Redondo avenue, Long Beach, to 9229 San Luis avenue, South Gate. Taken to the sheriff's office, Mrs. Cochran declared she knew but little of her husband's movements during the past week, but admitted she went from Long Beach with the Kistich woman to the San Diego home of the Kearneys, where she was being held. She also was taken to the sheriff's office, where she was being held. She also was taken to the sheriff's office, where she was being held.

Photographs and the most complete descriptions of these sought are being prepared for national broadcast by law-enforcing agencies, while a score of clues are being investigated.

WOMAN WILL TELL STORY AT INQUEST TODAY SAN DIEGO, May 23. (Exclusive) With her purported confession in the hands of police here at midnight tonight, Mrs. Agnes Grace Kearney, arrested with M. B. Colson in the Agua Caliente robbery investigation, will be the State's star witness at the inquest tomorrow over the bodies of the two men guards slain in the hold-up.

While preparations for the inquest were being made, Capt. Paul Hayes announced that several eyewitnesses to the robbery, including the alleged robbers, have identified Colson from photographs as one of the bandits. Other witnesses will face him tomorrow at the hospital, Hayes said.

JAPANESE EXPANSION AIMS TOLD Foreign Trade Club at Luncheon Warned Orient's Doorway Guarded

"Japan stands today at the doorway of the Orient. She intends to remain there and to expand her commercial activities, for otherwise she will lose her national life," C. Kimura, president of the Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles, told the Foreign Trade Club at a luncheon yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting was held in honor of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha Line, who is being transferred to Chicago. The Orient is the world's greatest potential market. Its possibilities for the United States are unlimited, but the American business man must approach them through the Japanese.

"The fullest co-operation on the part of both is essential. The East is moving toward universal democracy, and Japan herself is actuated by this spirit. The Chinese have no real quarrel with Japan and the interests of the two countries are inseparable."

"You are at present our superior in intellectual advancement and commercial organization, but you must remember that the life of a nation is not measured by decades—it is a question of centuries."

M. Nagamatsu, manager of the Yokohama Specie Bank of Los Angeles, briefly discussed Japanese financial conditions, calling attention to the present extensive bank deposits. S. L. Kreider described the attractions of tourist travel in Japan.

Bloody-Sweater Mystery Clew Seen in Hold-up Solution of the mystery surrounding the discovery of a blood-stained sweater early Wednesday morning, near the Westwood campus of University of California at Los Angeles, yesterday when police learned that had been beaten and robbed near the spot applied for medical treatment shortly before the discovery. The man, William Viennas, of 1050 Arden Road, Pasadena, was linked with the case through the fact that the sweater bore the label of a Pasadena haberdasher.

Just before daybreak it developed yesterday, Viennas appeared at George's Receiving Hospital with a severe gash in his scalp. He reported to surgeons he had been held up, struck over the head and robbed of his money and automobile on Beverly Boulevard near the university. Later, he said, he awakened in a restaurant at 1206 West Seventh street and made his way from there to the hospital. After emergency treatment he went home. The car was found in a garage at 517 South Burlington avenue.

At a late hour last night, Detective Lieutenant Curtis of the Sawtelle division, in charge of the investigation, had been unable to locate Viennas for questioning and expected identification of the sweater.

Harold Lloyd and Leroy M. Edwards, who will be grand marshal of the spectacular night film parade which will climax the Shrine convention, confers with the director-general.

Unqualified endorsement of Werner's candidacy was given by the American Indian Progressive Association, Inc., at the annual dinner. At the same time the Waiwaka Club, women's auxiliary of the association, pledged support to Werner.

Later in the evening Werner addressed members of the Los Angeles Indian Society during the first annual ball of the organization held at the California auditorium.

Another endorsement received by Werner came from the Mission district No. 40, Order of Railway Conductors.

PRINCE GOING TO ARGENTINA

(Continued from First Page) man Immigration in Argentina. This controversy set my plans ahead, that's all," he declared. "I expect to be back after a few months and continue my work in the Ford organization here."

He was accompanied to the train by C. S. Williams, Ford branch manager in Los Angeles, whom he characterized as "the first and finest boss I ever had." The young Prince does not know what the nature of his work in Argentina will be. He speaks Spanish fluently and has lived in Buenos Aires. It is expected that he will be associated with a department where his knowledge of the language can be used.

Miss Damita was not at the train. It is reported in Hollywood that their romance has cooled somewhat since he met some of the other young motion-picture actresses. He evaded the issue yesterday. "Our relations are about the same, but I am still too young to confine my entire attention to one woman," he declared. While he was talking his head continually turned toward the entrance to the train. "Perhaps you are looking for Miss Damita?" he was asked. The Prince smiled enigmatically as the train started.

OVERSEAS TALK ANNOUNCED Col. H. A. Hannigan of the Organized Reserve Corps of Southern California will be the principal speaker today at a meeting of the Arana Club, it was announced yesterday by J. Stanley Farlinger, secretary. His subject will be "Experiences Overseas." Alvin Hearn will be in charge of the session. Next Tuesday the club will attend the luncheon of the American Legion at the Alexandria, the event taking the place of the usual Friday meeting for next week.

FILMS TO BE FURNISHED Shrine-convention delegates will be furnished with motion pictures of the activities here, including many views of Los Angeles and Southern California by the Chamber of Commerce, so that the films may be taken home and shown in home-town theaters of the Shrine. It was announced yesterday by Leroy M. Edwards, director-general of the convention.

Complete facilities have been provided at the Coliseum for news reel, Movietone and press photographers, who will film the Shrine events for wide-wide circulation.

The Coliseum will be the scene of seven Shrine events, including a spectacular motion-picture electrical pageant with many famous stars, four performances of a sixty-five circus Maximus and two oriental parades. Proceeds from the sale of season tickets to these events will be used to finance the convention.

PERSHING SQUARE BAND FLEA UP ADVISEMENT With the Shrine annual convention less than two weeks away the Board of Park Commissioners yesterday took under advisement the request of Director-General Leroy M. Edwards for permission to erect a band stand in Pershing Square where music from a total of fifty-one Shrine bands might be heard during the entire week of the convention by the people of the city.

There was no discussion, but it is understood that the use of Pershing Square for the purpose sought is opposed by a majority of the commissioners on the ground that since Pershing Square is prohibited to groups of any kind it also should be prohibited to the Shrine.

The commissioners are understood to favor use of Westlake, Exposition and Lincoln parks for the Shrine bands, but the visiting nobles desire to use Pershing Square because of its location in the downtown district and its nearness to the hotels where thousands of the delegates, relatives and their friends will be stopping.

White Memorial Hospital Clinic Now Able to Care for 400 Patients Daily

Dr. Samuel Kline, medical director of the White Memorial Hospital Clinic at 313 North Boyle avenue, yesterday announced that the rebuilt and enlarged dispensary now has room and a staff to attend to 400 patients a day. The clinic, then known as the Boyle-avenue Dispensary, closed for rebuilding nine months ago, at which time it was trying, with overcrowded equipment, to treat 400 persons a day.

During the building period the patients fell away and were scattered, coming, as they did, from a territory within a ten-mile radius. The dispensary was reopened six weeks ago, but the fact has not become generally known to the population formerly served. Dr. Kline announced that, with trebled space and fifty doctors and students, the dispensary of this year and the next will handle 400 persons daily, excepting Saturdays, when it is closed.

Chapman's Will Move Office to Wilshire Tower

Negotiations have been completed whereby Chapman's Ice Cream Company will move its main office and headquarters to the Wilshire Tower Building, Wilshire Boulevard, having taken over the entire fourth floor.

It is reported by President A. A. Comey that this change has been made necessary because of the increase in stores during the first five months of this year and the further increase of stores to be opened in the near future. Leases on at least three new stores will be signed this week.

Sales for the first twenty days in May this year totaled $45,198, as against the sales of the first twenty days in May last year of $30,289.54, or 49.3 per cent increase.

EXEMPTIONS APPROVED Approval by the Civil Service Commission exemption from its regulations for fifty laborers and four firemen to be employed in cleaning up the firebreaks in the Santa Monica mountains and the further other precautions against forest fires was received and approved by the Fire Commission yesterday. Vaccarelli, Meyers Draw in New York

NEW YORK, May 23. (Exclusive)—Fete Meyers, Pacific Coast middleweight, 156½ pounds, received a draw with Tony Vaccarelli, the rugged Harlem Italian, 150½, at the end of a gruelling ten-round out in Madison Square Garden tonight. The decision was very unpopular and was noted for several minutes. It was a great fight, however, from start to finish, neither led asking or giving any quarter. Vaccarelli forced the fighting most of the way and landed the cleaner punches and, many thought, should have gotten the verdict.

Hagen Cancels Special Match With Compston

LONDON, May 23. (P)—Strong feeling has been displayed by the British press by the withdrawal of Walter Hagen, British open golf champion, from his scheduled matches with Archie Compston, British pro, at Moor Park and Birmingham. There have been some editorials suggesting to Hagen that he "think again" before disappointing his "British admirers." The Mail today said it had learned that Robert Harlow, manager of the American Ryder Cup team, had wired from Paris to the Moor Park Club definitely announcing Hagen's withdrawal and offering to refund the expenses entailed. Harlow also proposed Joe Turnesa as a substitute for Hagen in the matches with Compston. The club replied it was willing to accept Johnny Farrell as a substitute but not Turnesa.

Senorita Elia d'Alvarez Outgames Berkeley Girl to Win Doubles Play in French Title Event

BY THOMAS T. TOPPING
Associated Press Sports Writer
PARIS, May 23. (P)—The vivacious Senorita Elia d'Alvarez outgamed the reliable Miss Helen Wills, sometimes known as "Little Pook Face," in a brilliant tennis doubles match today. Largely as a result of the Spanish girl's dashing play, Miss Wills and her fellow-Californian, Edith Cross, the first and third ranking players of the United States, were eliminated in the women's doubles quarter-finals of the French championships by the red-sweatered senorita and her Dutch partner, K. A. Bouman. The defeat, which marked the first setback to Miss Wills' European invasion, was administered in straight sets by scores of 6-1, 6-4. Miss Wills was suffering from a slight cold, but she did not offer that as an excuse. "They deserved to win," she said. "They played better tennis." The day was particularly dis-

LA BARBA NOW FEATHERWEIGHT

Fidel Quits Bantamweight Ranks After Defeat at Hands of Kid Chocolate; Physical Strain of Making 120 Pounds Sapped Former Champion's Strength

BY JACK FARRELL
NEW YORK, May 23. (Exclusive)—Convinced by the poor showing he made against Kid Chocolate in their ten-round bout here last night, that he can no longer make the weight and do himself justice, Fidel La Barba, former world's flyweight champion, announced, through his manager, George Blake today, that he had decided to quit the bantamweight division and henceforth will fight as a featherweight. While offering no stilt for La Barba's defeat, Blake admitted that his fighter had a tough time making 120 pounds and that the physical strain he underwent to get down to that poundage robbed him of his speed and punch and sapped his vitality. La Barba will make his bow in the featherweight division on June 7 when he meets Tommy Paulin, Buffalo, for ten rounds.

HENNESSEY WINS CLASH FROM JAPANESE NETMAN

WASHINGTON, May 23. (P)—A hard-fought victory by John Hennessey over Tamio Abe today gave America's tennis forces a 1-0 lead over Japan in the semifinals of the American zone play for the Davis Cup. Hennessey, playing below his usual form, met stiff opposition from the spectacled Nipponese, who forced him to four sets before yielding, 6-4, 6-1, 3-6 and 6-1. The second singles encounter of the day, John Van Ryn against Yoshio Ohta, captain of the Japanese squad, was halted at 5:30 by pre-arrangement, with the American leading two sets to one and 4-2 in the fourth set.

Ace Hudkins Returns to Hollywood Stadium Tonight in Clash With Tom Moore

WILDCAT SEEKS KNOCKOUT WIN

Nebraska Batter Tackles Light Heavyweight

Got His Start in Game at Hollywood Club

Murray and Gouyd to Clash in Semi-Wind-up

Ace Hudkins is back as a main-eventer at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium tonight and a packed house is expected to greet him. He fights Tom Moore, a light-heavyweight, and while Ace is picked to win, and by a knockout, the fans look for a fight while the bout lasts as Moore is a big aggressive fellow and rated as a fairly good boxer. Moore is dangerous to some extent, but his followers say, and Ace isn't going to take any chance of a wild swing putting him away, his handlers declare.

Once a year Ace makes it a habit to show at the Legion Stadium. More for sentimental reasons than for the money he gets. The Wildcat got his start in California at the stadium and he is grateful to the Legion for the opportunity they gave him. He has sold out the house on every appearance regardless of the opponent he meets. Tonight is another sell-out.

Young Mr. Hudkins has promised to give the fans a run for their money. He doesn't intend to clown with Moore because he believes the Hollywood fans are wise when Ace is delivering anything but his best. They have seen him in action so many times that his style is very familiar to them.

A strong supporting set of preliminaries has been arranged to give the fans a show in case the main event should be short and sweet. Clayton Gouyd, a slugging little heavyweight, fights Frankie Murray of Philadelphia in the semi-wind-up and Gouyd is picked to win by his aggressive tactics.

The special event ends out with a boxing match, featuring a light-heavyweight, and Ernest Gill, a well known local fighter, is making his first start here. He is going to fight fairly by the rules. Gill is a newcomer.

The four-rounders are Jack Charvot fighting Red Bickout, middleweight, in the second spot, and Harold Fisher opening the show with Cerrito Acunung, bantamweight.

Ace Hudkins

Hudkins, Taylor on Boxing Bill

Bud Taylor and Ace Hudkins will be costars in the special boxing show arranged for the Main-street Club next Monday night as a testimonial to Jimmy Rothwell, brother of the late Young Corbett. Eddie Long, manager of Taylor, yesterday volunteered to let Bud meet the best boy obtainable and he was promptly matched with Tony Russo, who recently gave Bobby Herman a rough time at the Olympic. It will be Bud's first appearance in a Los Angeles ring since his return from the East. There was a rearrangement of the card to meet the withdrawal of "Tiny" Jim Herman, who was unable to get within the twelve pounds of Hudkins' weight required by the rules. Syd Elkland, a rising young middleweight, who has been seeking a bout with Ace, agreed to take Herman's place, and promises to give the Wildcat a real fight.

Charles Curtis, manager of the Main-street Club, has arranged ten four-round bouts, and guarantees that all will be real fights. Jimmy McLarnin, Mushy Callahan, Bert Collins and other noted boxers will be referees. Dan Tobey will be guest announcer.

RABBIT PUNCHES

STARTING blocks, which wrecked the California intercollegiate at the Coliseum last week, are going to cause a lively discussion in high-up athletic councils are long. The East hasn't seen the hand blocks which Dink Templeton introduced for the first time last Saturday, and it has concerned itself to date only with the foot-block situation.

These have come into somewhat general use since Baird and Cuhel of Iowa used them successfully in the final Olympic trials last year. They take the place of the holes runners dig as a brace for their feet.

Naturally, the new contraptions are a big improvement over a jagged hole which cannot be as uniform or as solid for starting purposes as a block.

But the idea of the foot blocks is opposed to that of the hand blocks, and there is bound to be a violent discussion over the advantage of either or both.

The foot blocks raise the feet. The hand blocks raise the hands. Templeton contends that elevation of hands gives a lanky man like Hector Dyer a faster start. Naturally, foot blocks would therefore be of no advantage to Dyer.

But inventors of the foot blocks say they increase starting speed by a fraction of a fifth-second.

Neither foot blocks nor hand blocks have been passed by the athletic powers. And the old-timers are shouting aloud that they never should be. They insist it is unfair to the veterans who set records years ago for current runners to have the advantage of devices which were not permitted—and were unthought-of—decades ago.

PROPHETS GO WRONG

IT APPEARS that the Kid Chocolate-Fidel La Barba battle was something resembling a woe at New York the other night.

Of course, it would have been much more of a success from a local standpoint had La Barba won.

On the other hand, the fact that Chocolate won while the majority of the 18,000 fans present believed La Barba was the victor will not hurt a future fight in the slightest.

In fact it might even serve to steam up additional interest in the affair. And inasmuch as La Barba returned to the fight trail from a university career at Stanford, searching for the gold that lures, he probably doesn't feel at all distressed over the situation.

However, there were a lot of smart pickers who went wrong on this fight. Among them was Art Winch, shabby manager of Earl Mastro. Early this month Winch dropped the writer a letter from Chicago in which he made the following prediction:

"Fidel will beat Kid Chocolate sure and I made a big bet as I saw Kid Chocolate fight a couple of weeks ago in New York. La Barba has the style that will beat him sure. Chocolate cannot take it in the body, and you know Fidel is a good body puncher, and he is hard to be nailed."

Since that letter Mastro, who seeks a return match with La Barba, has won a couple of fights handily. He stopped Terry Roth at New York and he defeated Babe Ruth at Louisville on the eve of the Kentucky Derby. Winch has promised Mastro a big prize if Mastro will beat La Barba at the Olympic this summer. Louisville papers referred to Mastro as another Harry Greb.

WILDCAT SOWS OUT

TONIGHT'S appearance of Ace Hudkins against Tom Moore at Hollywood and a benefit performance next Monday for Jimmy Rothwell probably will be the Wildcat's last in this city for several months.

The Walker-Hudkins match seems to have blown up for want of a parent. Walker is going East next week, and Hudkins will follow soon.

There are several matches pending for the Wildcat—Lemuel Braddock, Tuffy Griffith and others.

A Walker-Hudkins battle is a hot shot for this city, but the terms which the fighters proposed make it impossible for any promoter in his right senses to handle the proposition.

Hudkins should have no trouble in beating Moore although the latter is big enough and tough enough to cause a lot of trouble if the Wildcat gets careless.

At any rate the appearance of Hudkins probably will gladden Mr. Thomas Gallery's heart by the turnout of cash patrons who are nothing loath at any time to see the Wildcat in action.

PEREGRINA PICKED TO DEFEAT WAGNER

Despite predictions to the contrary by Fred Winsor, Joe Peregrina, Mexican middleweight, remains the favorite in his clash with Johnny (Chris) Wagner, Kansas City scrapper, tomorrow night at the Main-street Athletic Club.

Winsor not only believes Wagner will win, but declares the finish is likely to find Peregrina reclining in the ring. However, Peregrina has lost only one battle at the "house of action" and his backers are confident he will "take" Wagner.

VINES IN SEEDED SPOT OF JUNIOR TOURNEY

Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena and Lester Stetten of this city were yesterday placed first and second in the junior men's singles drawing for the Southern California open junior championships which start tomorrow morning at the Midway Country Club. Dorothy Workman, defending champion, and Carolyn Babcock, reigning queen of the sport, were first and second selections in the junior girls' event. Other stars to compete are Sidney Wood, Helen Marlowe, Max Deeg, Jay Cohn and Howard Clarke.

BAKERSFIELD TAKES TILT FROM CORONADO

BAKERSFIELD, May 23.—The Bakersfield Bees defeated the Coronado nine here today by a 10-to-3 score. Two Coronado players, O'Kane and Robertson, hit home runs but the visitors were tossed for a loss anyhow. Score:

INDIANS IN NO-SCORE RECORD

The Seattle team made a most unusual record in a game with San Francisco on Wednesday. The team collected ten safe hits off Kimer Jacobs, hit safely in every inning, and yet scored only one run. The club hit safely one time in eight innings and two times in the second inning when it scored its only run of the contest.

JUNIOR ATHLETES REST

Youngsters Take Things Easy in Preparation for County Meet at U.C.L.A. Tomorrow

Today is a day of rest for 140 Southern California youngsters who compete tomorrow in the Los Angeles county finals of the Junior Olympic Games. Having spent the entire week perfecting their weak events, the kids were prepared to take it easy today in anticipation of the big battle tomorrow.

The meet is billed for Moore Field, U.C.L.A., and will get under way promptly at 1 o'clock. All contestants are reminded not to forget their official birth certificate which must be presented at headquarters prior to the meet.

Those who leave this important card at home will be out of luck. Los Angeles county has produced a flock of sparkling athletes this season.

Particularly in the senior division where the competition promises to be terrific. Although Robert San Jose and Fernando Ramon have made the best scores, neither has much over a dozen other youths and anything is likely to happen once the youngsters start their performance tomorrow.

It's hard to see how anybody can head off young Vane Baker of Huntington Park in the junior division inasmuch as he is a good fifty points ahead of his nearest foe. Those who know Vane are glad that he has done so well and there will be scores of persons pulling for him to repeat the performance or do even better tomorrow. He lost out by such a narrow margin last year, and has come back to battle his way to the top so courageously this season, that no one will begrudge him the honors he seems destined to win.

Baker, however, will have to be at his best to keep ahead of Jerry Deal, last year's Southern California junior champion. Deal is a battler himself, and although Baker appears to have the edge at this writing plenty of fur will fly before the championship is officially settled.

Reports from Riverside and Santa Barbara are to the effect that everything is in readiness for county meets at these two cities.

Richman Wins Lap in Derby

KENT (Tex.) May 23. (AP)—Rain, hail and hot sun beat down upon C. G. Pyle's transcontinental bucket today in their fifty-six-mile lap here from Pecos, Tex., won by Sam Richman, New York. It was Richman's fifth consecutive day as lap winner. His time was 7h. 2m. 2s.

Richman cut almost twelve minutes from the time that separates him from third place in elapsed time held by Glusto Umek, Italy.

Umek was second in 7h. 12m. 50s. Paul Simpson, Burlington, N. C., was third, and John Belo, Peaslee, N. J., leader in total elapsed time, tied with Pete Gavuzzi for fourth. It was the fifth straight day they checked together. Belo's margin of leadership remained at twenty-one minutes and thirty seconds.

Jesse Dalsell, Springfield, Mo., nineteenth in total elapsed time, quit the race today because of foot trouble. His retirement reduced the field to twenty-three.

SANTA MONICA RUNNER GETS NUMBER THIRTY

Jimmy Crum, a resident of Santa Monica, will wear the mystic "13" in The Times Pre-Olympic Marathon.

He was awarded the first number 130-day at a meeting of the executive committee, which was hastily called to consider Crum's heart - rendering appeal for the 130-day privilege of wearing the number.

There is considerable mystery surrounding the Santa Monica runner, who was one of the usual two-day entrants into the long-distance event, scheduled to be run June 15.

In his letter, accompanying his entry blank, he wrote:

"I am another one of those who would like to wear No. 13, and if you only knew what it meant to me, perhaps I would have a chance to get the number."

Charles Keppen, the director of the race, took a hurried poll of the executive committee members, and it was voted that Crum would get the first number.

The other entrant yesterday was Varick D. Martin, Jr., of Pasadena, who swilled the total list to twenty-nine participants. With the time for the race rapidly approaching, all entrants are reported to be training industriously for the grind. Gold medals will be awarded to the first ten men to cross the finish line at the end of the 36-mile 380-yard grind, and a cup will be presented to the winner.

Ed Foster, chairman of the official committee of the A.A.U., is preparing a list of prospective officials, which the executive committee is expected to act on shortly, and the names will be announced within a few days.

The entry list to date:

Henry Crum, L.A.A.C.
Paul Simpson, Burlington, N.C.

The engagement was announced the 11th inst., at a luncheon and bridge with which Miss Terrell Haugh entertained, the news being told at the dessert course when the cakes were charmingly unique, blue dolls topped them with outstretched arms and a scroll carried under the arm had the names of the betrothed. The cakes were beautifully iced with pink and white frosting.

Those included were Miss Herrell Haugh, Miss Marian Haugh, Miss Marian Terrell, Miss Orpha Wilson, Miss Dorothy Yates, Miss Patricia Sherlock, Miss Denise Berry, Miss Eleanor Gerold, Miss Dorothy Chapman, Miss Marcia Green, Miss Lydia Lambert, Miss Gertrude Gardner, Miss Ruth Ritchie, Miss Eleanor Johnson, Miss Jeannette Braddock, Miss Louise Clair, Miss Dorothy Lehman, Miss Peggy Shinn, Miss Edith Teichner, Miss Helen Small, Miss Shirley Kennedy, Mrs. O. Among the hostesses of recent date are Mrs. Alfred Varian who gave a miscellaneous shower the 14th inst. and Mrs. W. A. Bassett, who entertained with a bridge party at her home 539 Kensington Road, the 17th inst.

For Bride-elect
In honor of Miss Bess Cowan whose marriage to Alfred Ralph Myers is to be solemnized Sunday at the Mayan Hotel, Miss Betty Travis entertained with a bridge tea Saturday afternoon at the Los Angeles City Club, the rooms being decorated with a profusion of sweet peas and delphinium. The guests included Misses Rosita Hopps, Margaret Crist, Margaret Gaskie, Margaret Morrell, Sylvia Myers, Lucille Yates, Elmer Mario, Alice Malin, Frances Buchanan, Grace Alworth, Evelyn Gold, Mildred Pfaffenberger, Mrs. Ivy Mae Travis, Mrs. G. G. Lamplin and Mrs. Howard Cole. After the wedding ceremony which will be read by Dr. Liknaitis, Mr. Myers will take his bride for an extended honeymoon motor trip and they will make their home here after their return.

Old-Fashioned Garden Party
Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Heath of Franklin Avenue, Hollywood, entertained with an old-fashioned English garden party at Mrs. Helen's Filinridge Rose Villa, Thursday evening. The garden was brilliantly lighted with varicolored lights. Dinner was served at tables sheltered by huge beach umbrellas. Music was furnished by an orchestra concealed in a bower of foliage. The hosts as well as a majority of the guests came from England and Canada. The English motif was carried out in settings and appointments and the favors were miniature Queen Elizabeth dolls. Among the guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Orville Owens, Chester A. Holworthy, R. E. Chamberlain, Cedric Leigh, Blakeley Marsden, Rupert Rounds, and the Messrs. Overdend Lawrence, Fay Langwell, Kitty Forsythe, Myrtle Johnstone, Deirdre Yates, Muriel Marsh, Beatrice Grimwood and the Messrs. William Norton, Lowell Hardacre, T. F. Wirth, Thomas Darton, Clyde Bosworth and Christopher Crowell.

Spanish Fiesta
A Spanish Fiesta at the Uplifters' ranch in Santa Monica will feature the next reunion of the alumnae chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority tomorrow. Plans for an all-day gathering include outdoor sports, breakfast in the open air, and a business meeting devoted to the convention of the national sorority which is to be held in June at Cornell University.

Reviving the days of the dons and the glorified, old Spanish folk songs will be sung and acted out by stilt-walkers and shawl-bedecked sorority members, with Mrs. Walter A. English, president of the Los Angeles alumnae chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi, appearing in the solo roles, assisted by a chorus composed of Mrs. Mary Finley, Miss Cecelia Shields, Miss Grace Sumnerbell, Mrs. Lewis A. Kistler, Mrs. Leroy Dixon, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Older.

Annual Play Day
Zeta Tau Alpha alumnae and active members in Southern California will gather for their annual play day at the Westport Beach Club tomorrow. Interest in the annual elections for the Los Angeles alumnae chapter is keen, since the announcement of the nominating committee's report. For president, take the position vacated by Mrs. Norton S. Grant, the name of Mrs.

Angus McDonald of Huntington Park has been submitted. Other names of the nominating committee are Miss Ruth King and Mrs. George Richardson for vice-president, Miss Edna Cunnison for secretary, Miss Laura Bell for treasurer, and Miss Catherine Hodges for historian. As directors Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Linton Smith, Miss Ruthie Grow, Miss Marcella Rex and Miss Virginia Young have been given. Nominations may also be made from the members present at the election to be held at 10 o'clock at the club.

The best swimmer in the sorority will compete for prizes in a jolly meet preceding the luncheon. The luncheon will have a short program of talks from the new province president, Miss Helen Harrison of Pasadena, Miss Marjorie Snow of Xi chapter, and Miss Laura Bell, representing Beta Epsilon chapter. Mrs. Burton Grant will preside and present the new officers of the Los Angeles alumnae chapter and the Pasadena alumnae chapter.

Birthday Anniversary
Mrs. Linton Smith will be hostess for the day, assisted by Miss Virginia Young, Mrs. George Frindle and Mrs. Walter Linnville. Mrs. Prindle is in charge of the reservations for the luncheon. Miss Young is in charge of the bridge tournament in the afternoon, for which some lovely prizes have been donated.

To Entertain Sorority
Members of Los Angeles alumni chapter of Delta Gamma will be guests next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Bridge of Beverly Hills.

This chapter anticipates a busy fortnight prior to June 4, when it will take over the President Theater for one performance of "Skidding." Although benefit performances at local theaters have almost become the order of the day among Greek-letter organizations which are building up funds for erection of new chapter houses at Westwood, Delta Gamma has a particular interest in "Skidding" inasmuch as the author, Mrs. Aurania Rouveral, is a member of Delta Gamma.

In charge of the event of June 4 is Mrs. C. P. De Laubenfels, president of the Los Angeles Alumni, and members of her board, including Mrs. Geneva Jackson, Mrs. Herbert Evans, Mrs. Hazel Loy, Eva Roberts and Mrs. Rouveral.

Retrospect and Wedding Date
Mr. and Mrs. William P. Kehney recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Louise Kennel, to Richard E. Green, Jr. at a luncheon given at the home on Whitley Avenue, Hollywood. The news was revealed as a surprise by cards bearing the names of the betrothed and the date set for the wedding, June 28, hidden in corsages of sweet peas which were distributed among the guests by little Mary Louise Barber of Beverly Hills.

The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents. Those bidden to the affair were Messrs. Leland Payton, Harold Watkins, Sheldon Sundgren, William J. Kenney and Misses Ruth Steffen, Evelyn Ryder, Lois Conaway, Dagmar Rasmussen, Edith Nichols, Tress Gunning, Robin Ruth Bellier, Eileen Ambrose and Helen Martin.

Formal Tea

Miss Peggy Weaver, with other, will assist at the affair. The spring motif will be carried out in the colors of pink and orchid in candles and flowers.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

(Requests for recipes and information pertaining to the proper preparation and cooking of every recipe. Address all requests to A. L. Wynn, Editor, Kitchen, 424 Arden Ave., Glendale 2-21.)

CHEF WYMAN'S ANSWERS ORANGE CAKE FILLING

Grated rind of one medium-sized orange, one-half a cupful of sugar, two tablespoonsful of cornstarch, two-thirds of a cupful of boiling water, two tablespoonsful of butter, one egg, one-third of a cupful of orange juice; mix together the grated orange rind, sugar and cornstarch, slowly pour on the boiling water and cook in a double boiler for ten minutes stirring constantly; then add the butter, pour the mixture over the well-beaten egg, return to the saucepan, and cook for one minute; add the orange juice and lemon juice, beat well, cool and use.

ORANGE SOUFFLE CORRECTION

G. M. S. Redlands, Cal.
Olad you called my attention to the orange souffle recipe, and in place of reading orange juice it should have been, "place the orange sections in the baking dish and pour the souffle on top of it."

SPANISH LOAF WITH HOMINY

Mrs. C. J. H. Los Angeles, Cal.
One onion, three cupfuls of hominy, three-quarters of a cupful of grated cheese, a seasoning of salt and pepper, and one-half a cupful of milk, one-half a cupful of stoned ripe olives, two pintos, cut in small pieces, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, place three tablespoonsful of butter in a sauce pan, slice the onion, and cook until tender, then add the milk, remove from the fire, add the cheese, olives, pimientos, parsley, and seasoning, place in an oiled baking dish and bake for twenty minutes.

VEAL BIRDS

Choose three pieces of real steaks, cut two by four inches, spread with a bread dressing and roll; tie or fasten with toothpicks, dredge with flour and season; sear until a golden brown on all sides, place in a baking dish, and add enough milk or water to half cover, cover the pan and bake in a moderate oven for one hour.

BREAD DRESSING

Four cupfuls of soft bread crumbs, a seasoning of salt and paprika, one finely chopped onion, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, one-half a teaspoonful of onion salt, one-fourth of a cupful of melted butter, mix all together in the order given, if too dry, add a little water.

FIG PRESERVES

E. M. Los Angeles, Cal.
Either steam the figs in a colander, without peeling them (and the white figs should be used) or simmer them gently so as not to break them, then they are almost transparent. Firm and not too ripe figs must be used, remove them from the steamer and place on a platter, make a heavy syrup, using the water they have been steamed in, two cupfuls of sugar to one cupful of liquid; allow the syrup to boil until the sugar is thoroughly dissolved, then add the cheese, olives, pimientos, parsley, and seasoning, place in an oiled baking dish and bake for twenty minutes.

APRICOTS AND PINEAPPLE PRESERVES

Place in a preserving kettle four cupfuls of shredded pineapple, and four quarts of peeled, seeded and sliced apricots, the grapes, and the juice of two oranges, eight cupfuls of sugar, and cook until thick, being very careful not to burn; place in hot sterilized jars and cover at once with the tops of the jars.

Note: Apricots and also fig preserves must be covered with airtight covers and sealed while hot the same as you do in canning; I hope you will have better success this year with your fruit.

DAILY AIRING AN INSURANCE AGAINST ILLNESS

This is the time of year when pale and puny little houseplants are set out in the sun and show clearly the effects of their long months in warm and badly aired rooms. There is a daily plaint from mothers that marks the recognition of the effects of the babies' long season indoors, and they should realize that about all that is necessary to redress that pesty skin, start baby's hair to growing and cure Bud of his inclination to take cold each time he gets a snuff of fresh air is to give overdone of just this same air and sun.

Daily Airing Essential

Now that conditions are favorable for daily airing for babies past two weeks of age, mothers should make it a stern and unalterable duty to get out for at least two hours every day. No, it isn't a bit of fun to wheel a baby out in the sun. The housework is bound to suffer. But just putting him in a well-aired room isn't quite enough. And sometimes putting him out in front of the house, if he has to be close to the street in dust and motor-car fumes, isn't enough either. He needs to be directly in the sun and breathe fresh, clean air. One young mother said to me, "Oh, I hate this daily parade of baby carriages and dragging the child to the park." Well, it just has to be done. It's part of the duty of caring for a baby in the proper manner. Sunlight and fresh air are, next to food, the most important part of the daily routine.

The older child needs it just as surely. The little runabout who can't be trusted to stay in the yard needs his daily airing as surely as his baby sister. Spring used to mean doses of thick, pasty sulphur and molasses, or worm medicines, or cream of tartar to thin the blood. Mother felt that housecleaning wasn't finished until the family had been housecleaned, too. Now we furnish the children with red blood that puls color in their cheeks and deposits bundles of oxygen in every cell in their bodies by the much more agreeable method of filling their plates with every kind of vegetable, using steamed or raw fruit for their desserts and sending them out in the sun to draw their spring tonic from its rays.

These are such pleasant tonics that mothers can't possibly believe them even more efficacious than the old-time nostrums. If vegetable and fruit juices came in expensive bottles and tasted just a bit nasty, mothers would feel so much more as if they were really spring tonics.

So we have to conscientiously administer the vegetables, milk and fruits and the daily airing and sunning as though they were in truth medicines. They are the children's positive insurance against summer illnesses, for there are no more perfect seasons for building bodies than these bright spring months.

Escalloped celery. Thoroughly wash a bunch of celery and cut the stalks into half-inch lengths. Place a layer of melba toast crumbs in the bottom of a baking dish and this mixture, cover the top with the crumbs, and bake while covered for about twenty minutes in a hot oven. For the last few minutes remove the lid and allow to slightly brown on top.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Appendicitis Operation
Question: Mrs. K. writes: "I recently had an operation for appendicitis and proctitis of the intestine. I am now so weak that I cannot gain strength as I should. Also, have a constant fear that some one is going to harm me, although I don't believe I have died. I am very nervous, and at night I lie awake, almost afraid to turn in bed, and sometimes I walk all night from room to room, looking out first one door and another, watching for something. I don't know what I am miserable. Can you help me?"

Answer: Your organs are probably prostrated as badly as before and you have all the neurotic symptoms which go with a pressure of the prostrated organs upon the uterus and ovaries. You certainly could be helped with the right treatment, but such treatment cannot be given through the columns of a newspaper. You need manipulative treatment of the abdomen, and exercising of the abdominal muscles to make these muscles strong so that they will hold the abdominal organs in place.

Art Proteins Necessary?
Q: H. O. asks: "Can one build a strong, and healthy body on an exclusive diet of fruits and vegetables? Which fruits and vegetables, if any, are fattening?"

A: It is necessary to add some proteins besides the fruits and vegetables. The only fruits which are considered fattening are bananas, olives and avocados. Vegetables which are called fattening are potatoes and Hubbard squash, but the cereals are the most "fattening" foods.

Twitching of Face
Q: Mrs. A. B. asks: "Would nervousness cause a twitching of the face? At times I can't control the muscles of my face. I am 20 years of age."

A: You need a diagnosis to determine the cause of your nervousness. You can then no doubt be helped if the right treatments are used, with proper diet and the cultivation of good hygienic habits.

CLUB NOTES
"Hollywood School Days," one of the most elaborate presentations yet undertaken by a Los Angeles organization of women, will be given tomorrow evening in the council house at 214 Loma Drive by the Los Angeles Section of the National Council of Jewish Women.

GUIDING YOUR CHILD
A BROKEN HOME
By Mrs. Agnes Lyne
The case of Esther gives food for thought. When she was 5 years of age her mother and father were divorced and Esther went to live with her mother. At school she suffered considerably from feelings of social inferiority due to her mother's personal misfortune.

She succeeded, however, not only in making a good adjustment at school, but also, later on, in work. Her own marriage has been successful.

Throughout her growing years she felt keenly her need of a father. But her mother was a woman of courage and Esther had the advantage of growing up in an atmosphere free of the unacknowledged fears and unhealthy undercurrents of emotion which weaken the child's confidence in himself and his appetite for life.

We hear a great deal about the handicaps of children who live in homes broken by death or divorce. Certainly no one will deny that the child who is forced to grow up in a broken home suffers a profound spiritual privation, yet it is one which is calamitous only when the child must spend his formative years with those who are not able to face their failures and assimilate their griefs.

Those hardships which parents are able to accept with fortitude and poise will work no harm in the lives of their children—indeed, they may be a source of strength.

It is in the griefs which they cannot accept and in the failures which they cannot face that the poison is found which warps the child's life and twists its values. A broken home is unfortunate, but it need not be tragic.

ONE EX-OFFICER FREED IN LIQUOR THEFT TRIAL

The ghost of John Barleycorn stalked before the bench of Superior Judge Dornan's court yesterday when Arlett Merritt and J. J. Sullivan, former Los Angeles police officers, went to trial on a charge of burglarizing the home of Henry Riggs at 1120 West Forty-ninth street, August 13, 1928, and stealing four cases of Old Crow whiskey valued at $384.

The defendants agreed to a trial without a jury and Merritt won a speedy acquittal when witnesses failed to identify him as one of the two men who entered the house.

DISBURSING PLAN
Of the total estimate, $905,450 is for operation and maintenance of playgrounds, pools, equipment and the playground department, leaving $146,575 for new budgeted expendi-

HE'S FINISHED WITH SCOOTIN' Two Smash-ups Regarded as Plenty

“HEY, DOC—c'm'ere a second will you?”

Police Sergeant Sebastian yesterday stepped over to the operating table in Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, on which lay the bruised little body of Joe Millhorn, 8 years of age.

“Yes, sonny, what is it?”

“Say, I ain't gonna operate on me, are you?”

“No, we're just going to set your broken arm.”

Joe breathed a sigh of relief. “Well, then, it's all right. Jus' so's I know, I been hearin' a lot about these here operations—and I jus' wanted you to know I ain't gonna let nobody operate on me. No sir—not me!” Then he settled him- self down and kept up a running fire of conversation with the amused nurses until a whiff of anesthetic silenced him.

Joe was taken into the hospital with a splinted right arm and numerous abrasions about the face and body, shortly after he had disobeyed his father's rule about scooting down the hill near his home at 1424 1/2 Silver Lake boulevard, and shot down the hill, going under the wheels of an automobile driven, according to the police, by Jack Logue of 3303 Sunset boulevard.

“No more scootin' for me,” he said, when the “operation” was over.

PHONE RATES DISCUSSED
Los Angeles telephone rates were discussed by Councilman Peterson M. Hall, candidate for city attorney, in an address last night at the Fifty-ninth street school before the Southwestern Mutual Protective As- sociation.

Chambers of commerce, clubs, civic organizations and prominent men and women in every section of the city have endorsed the $17,500,000 power bond issue and the $22,500,000 water bond issue to be voted at the June 4 election. It was announced yesterday by H. A. Van Norman, general manager of the Department of Water and Power.

Emphasis was laid on the fact that approval of the water and power bonds will not increase taxes. Interest and principal charges, it was pointed out, are paid from earnings of the department.

Among the organizations voicing approval of the bond issues are Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, West San Fernando Valley Asso- ciated Chambers of Commerce, Golden State Lodge, No. 29, Loyal Order of Moose, Huntington Hills Improvement Association, Woman's Osteopathic Club.

Individuals endorsing include W. F. Jeffries, G. E. Monnette, E. H. Ward, Mrs. Stanley H. Thibault, Judge Leslie R. Hewitt, Mrs. Orville Rout, Charles A. Holland, Charles G. Young, Municipal Judge Charles P. Johnson, Edward Adams, W. H. Wadsworth, Thomas W. Teddy, Howard J. Callahan, G. Cavallieri, E. S. Wolfson, William Markowitz, Walter H. L. Kent, Theodore J. Van De Kamp, O. M. Bouden and T. R. Knudsen.

General Manager Van Norman points out that Los Angeles busi- ness will be stimulated by large purchases of materials and thou- sands of persons employed in the work of extending the municipal system.

Children to Be Given Delicacies

Pauline Starke Sues Cruze Over Film Contract
Charging breach of contract, Pauline Starke, film actress, yesterday filed suit in Superior Court for $6000 against James Cruze, motion-picture director.

According to the actress' com- plaint, Cruze engaged her for a pe- riod of four weeks to play a role in the picture “The Great Gatsby.” She asserts that work was started on the picture the 14th inst. but that Cruze summarily dismissed her four days later. The amount sued for by Starke is declared to be due her under her asserted contract with the director.

Actress Must Await Ruling
Virginia Cherrill, leading lady for Charlie Chaplin, must wait five days to find out whether she must pay the rent for a house “which was leased and not occupied, Municipal Judge Bush ordered yesterday after hearing the testimony in the case. He ordered attorneys for both sides to file briefs of their arguments.

Miss Cherrill told the court that her mother signed a lease for the house at 610 Rodeo Drive, Beverly Hills, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Anton Grot. Shortly afterward, she said, her mother was forced to leave for Chicago and she refused to live in the house alone. The Grots ask $501 for rents and incidentals.

Retired Divines Indorse Bonelli in Mayor Race
More than fifty retired ministers of Los Angeles, comprising the Vete- ran Ministers' Association, have gone on record, through the organi- zation's executive committee, sup- porting William G. Bonelli for Mayor.

Some of these men have given fifty years or more to the ministry. Among them are pastors in every creed, and in every denomination. Rev. J. Howard Adams, secretary of the organization, in commenting upon the indorsement, said: “These men who have given their lives to the support of those things which make for decency, morality and clean order in city government believe that in William G. Bonelli they recognize a man for the people and their best interests, and that Bonelli's tenure of office would be characterized by the lofty and un- selfish pursuit of those principles of municipal administration, his conviction and profession so emi- nently qualify him to realize and make effective.”

A letter of indorsement bearing the names of J. Bruce Goddard, president of the association, and Charles F. Letters and telegrams from sup- porters of the unsuccessful candi- dates are being received daily at Foster-for-Council headquarters, 1807 West Sixth street, according to Elmer Perry, campaign manager.

TRAFFIC HURTS FATAL TO TWO

Boy and Woman Succumb
Day Following Mishaps

Ray Nielsen, 12 years of age, of 2810 Coolidge street, died yesterday in Georgia street receiving hospital, the victim of a hit-and-run driver whose automobile struck him down Wednesday night at Riple street and Edinburg Drive. With a compound fracture of the skull, the boy lingered nearly twenty-four hours before succumbing to his injuries.

Mrs. Ruth Ketch, 42 years of age, of 4289 Harvard Boulevard, died yesterday in Georgia street receiving hospital, as the result of injuries suffered Wednesday night when the car in which she was riding with her husband turned over after colliding with another machine at Harvard Boulevard and Greer street. A fractured skull caused her death. The other car, according to police, was driven by Frank Bayer of 2147 Verdun avenue. He was not held, police finding both drivers were equally to blame.

A collision of two automobiles last night, at Avenue 41 and York Boulevard caused the serious injury of Dorothy Penold, 16 years of age, of 12741 Alpha street. She received a basal skull fracture. Her cousin, Nadine Demmel, 16, of 1319 East Garfield avenue, received cuts and bruises, while the car's owner, Frank Oltner, 21, of 3663 San Francisco street, was slightly injured. All were treated at Georgia street receiving hospital, where it was said that Miss Penold may die. The other auto was operated by

He paid $150 in interest and renewal charges, but still owed $47.50, so applied for and obtained an injunction against the company.

PLAYGROUND SITE OFFER ACCEPTED

The Playground and Recreation Department yesterday accepted the offer of Carlin G. Smith, who donated four lots, consisting of an area 150 feet wide and 1500 feet long in a heavily wooded canyon in the Moyness Terrace, as a future playground to provide for the district when developed. The offer was in response to the commission's suggestion that subdivisions should make allowance for playgrounds in order to avoid the need for costly land in later years.

CROSLAND MAKES NEW MUSICAL

Pert Kelton Is "Sally" Ingenue—May Sign Contract;
Lenore Ulric Slated to Play "Kiki" in Movietone;
Ethel Barrymore's Son, Samuel Colt, Is Here

BY GRACE KINGSLEY
With his latest directorial effort, "On With the Show," from Humphrey Pearson's engaging story, breaking all records at Warner Brothers Theater in Hollywood, Alan Crosland is very likely, we learn, to keep on with the transferring of musical shows to the screen in color.

"Babes in Toyland," the old musical comedy, by Victor Herbert, with its quaint story and characters, its beauty and fun, will be directed for Warners by Crosland some time in the near future. It is to be made in color, just as "On With the Show" was. Marian Nixon and Billie Bakewell will have the leading roles in the production, according to present plans.

In the meantime, Crosland is busy directing John Barrymore in "General Crack," and may direct the star's next one before going to work on "Babes in Toyland."

FIRST NATIONAL SIGNS MUSICAL FAVORITE

That very brilliant and original young star of musical comedy and vaudeville, Pert Kelton, has just been signed by First National.

You probably remember her here at the Orpheum a few months ago. While Miss Kelton's first contract with First National is for but one picture, it is on the cards that she will be signed to a long-term contract if her first effort is successful, of which there seems to be no doubt. She is to play the ingenue lead with Marilyn Miller in "Sally."

Miss Kelton, since making her first local hit at the Orpheum here about five years ago, has become a Broadway star, appearing in Shubert and Ziegfeld shows and in various musical comedies.

Lenore Ulric as "Kiki"

"Kiki," we hear, is again to be produced on the screen, this time as a talking picture.

Fox is to make it with Lenore Ulric in the role which she created on the stage, and which will be played by the original actress and dialogue retained.

Horns Tamara, started in "Kiki" for United Artists, about three years ago, and gave a delightful performance; but, due to the censors, the story was considerably changed. Now, with the talking pictures in vogue, the play should be an excellent attraction as a talker, especially with the creator of the star role appearing in it.

Ethel Barrymore's Son Here

Samuel Colt, 18-year-old son of Ethel Barrymore and Russell Colt, is in Hollywood visiting his uncle John, we learn. The youth is happily enjoying himself, attending parties and seeing the country.

He will return east within a few weeks to finish his college course. And then—well, they do say that he has a great leaning toward the stage and pictures. Being a good-looking young star, there is every chance that he will succeed if he goes into theatrical life.

Sells Directs for R.-K.-O.

Once more George B. Sells is on the R.-K.-O. lot. He used to work as director at that studio when it was known as F.B.O. you know. He has been assigned the pleasant duty of directing "Tanned Legs," by George Ruhl, for which Tom Geraghty is writing the continuity and adaptation.

Pauline and Jack Fish

If you aren't working, you may as well go fishing. Anyhow, that's what Pauline Starke and her husband are doing.

bank, the comedy producer, Jack White, seem to think. Jack has been working very hard at being funny for a whole year, over at Educational, and having met with success, he sees no reason for not taking it a bit easy for a few weeks. So yesterday morning he and Miss Starke left for the forests and streams of Oregon, where they will angle for trout.

Three for "Salute"

One of the best casts which Fox has ever gathered together in a single picture is to be the portion of "Salute," which Jack Ford will direct.

Joyce Compton, Frank Albertson and Hayden Phyllis, football star, are the newest additions to the cast, which already boasts Helen Chandler and George O'Brien in the leading roles. The picture is being made at Annapolis.

Blanche Sweet With Columbia

It is pleasant to relate that so excellent an actress as Blanche Sweet is to stage a comeback in pictures, although to some of us who admire her work she has never really been away.

However, it is known now that she is signing a contract with Columbia to star in a number of pictures. Miss Sweet was formerly a Griffith and Paramount star. Her latest notable achievement was in "Anna Christie."

Mary Astor Leaving Fox

We hear that Mary Astor's contract with Fox films has expired, and that she is leaving the organization.

It is known that she has received other offers, and we may expect to hear of her signing with some other company within a week or two.

Lasky Talks of Talkers

Sound film is conquering Europe, and it is only a question of a few years before it will be dominant all over the world.

This is the opinion of Jesse L. Lasky, first vice-president of Paramount, who has returned from a visit to England and France, where he made a careful survey of the talking-picture situation.

"London and Paris have received talking pictures with marked enthusiasm," Lasky declared. "Talking and singing pictures have opened up a wide field of American talent from musical comedy, operatic and dramatic fields, which was not available to the screen heretofore."

"England is ideally equipped for making dialogue pictures. The country is replete with brilliant playwrights, fine actors and stage directors, while the English climate will not prove the same handicap in sound pictures that it has sometimes been in making silent productions."

"Talking pictures are the reigning conversational topic in England and France, and it is now simply a matter of time before hundreds of theaters will be equipped to show talking and singing films in Great Britain, France and Germany."

Report has it that various studios in this country are planning to make speaking versions of their pictures in three or four languages. Among them is, we hear, Paramount, although Mr. Lasky had nothing to say on that score.

Millards Webb to Europe

Just the minute Millards Webb finishes directing "Clorifying the American Girl" for Paramount in New York, he will pack up and hop a boat bound for Europe.

While details are lacking, it is known that Webb expects to make two pictures abroad for a foreign company, a wire informing friends here to that effect.

As soon as the European pictures are finished, the director will return to Hollywood.

Taurog Makes Mystery Yarn

It's about time, it seems to us, that somebody began kidding the mystery plays, and we are pleased to announce that that successful young director, Norman Taurog, is to undertake the task.

Taurog will direct Clark and McCullough through a laugh edition of a thriller as their next Fox Movietone talker. The story revolves in the temporary title of "The Haunted Bungalow."

Sally Phipps has the leading feminine role, while Alan Lane and Jack Duffy will be entrusted with important parts.

Liquor Seller Given Probation

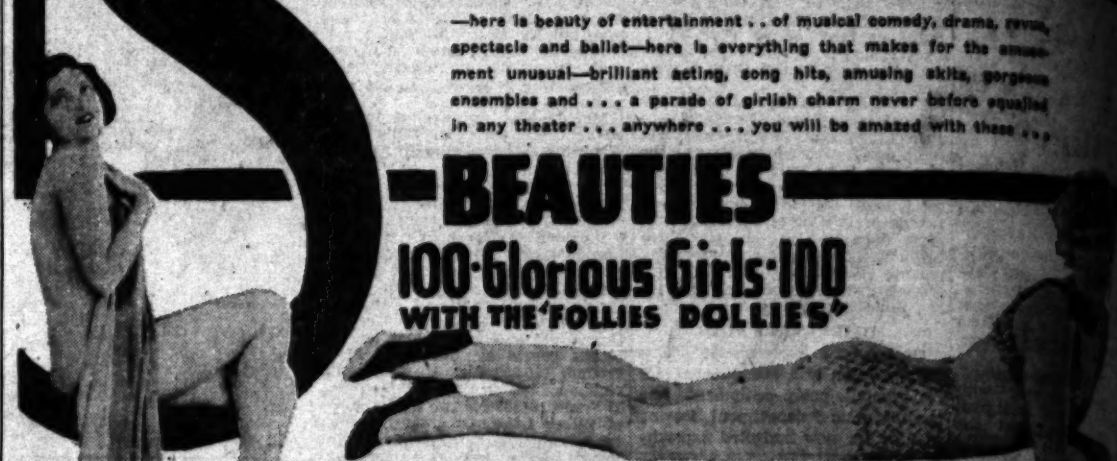

Sale of eighteen drinks of liquor at 50 cents a drink constitutes a Federal offense, but United States District Judge James gave Catherine Devitt, who admitted the charge, a chance.

After a plea by D. G. Taylor, her attorney, the woman was given a year in jail, but the sentence was suspended for two years while she is on probation. The woman was arrested at Needles.

NEVER SUCH PRAISE?

MONROE LATHROP in the Express, says—
"Quite beyond dispute the best dramatic output of the new screen art. The picture is a revolution. No one before has made the voice and the figure so real and intimate... exciting..."

EDWIN SCHALLERT in the Times, says—
"This talker shows ingenuity and plenty of it. Even those who are skeptical will find it more satisfying than the familiar sound feature. It will help to make them like the squawks!"

LLEWELLYN MILLER in the

"Suspense reaches the boiling point at many moments in 'Alibi.' If you like excitement and realism, 'Alibi' has made a show that should not be missed..."
